SOQUEL TAKES

LAYNE McKAYE

Layne is a senior who was one of the few students who enjoyed his freshman year. He said that he liked being a freshman because it was a different experience, and he had a lot of fun.

MATT HEIN

Matt is a sophomore and says, "Being a freshman was cool, but since I was a freshman all the Varsity Cheerleaders wouldn't go out with me at first." But now that he's 15 and not a freshman, he's content.

TYROS WILSON

Tyros is 15 years old and is currently a sophomore. She is from Austin, Texas, where she says life is much more "hip" than here at Soquel. She says she is terribly bothered by the freshmen underclass ranking.

JASON FISHER

Jason is a freshman who looks to his future. He doesn't like being "the underdog". Jason says, "Being a freshman sucks," but he's sure that life as a big sophomore will be much better.

SOQUEL STUDENTS TAKE CREDIT FOR THINGS IN AND OUT OF SCHOOL. THESE STUDENTS TAKE PRIDE IN ACADEMICS AS WELL AS IN OFF CAMPUS TALENTS. AFTER SCHOOL SPORTS, PART-TIME JOBS, INDIVIDUAL HOBBIES, AND HAVING LOTS OF FUN ARE WAYS THESE STUDENTS EXPRESS THEMSELVES.

"I work at Gilbert Land Development because I like working with heavy equipment."-Scott Gilbertson

"Through photography I capture and record my most important experiences."-Roxanna Koski

"Soquel High Sports always work to be number one, and I will use all means to help achieve that standing."-Don Stevenson

Julie McMillan relaxes in the sun, in a photogenic way.

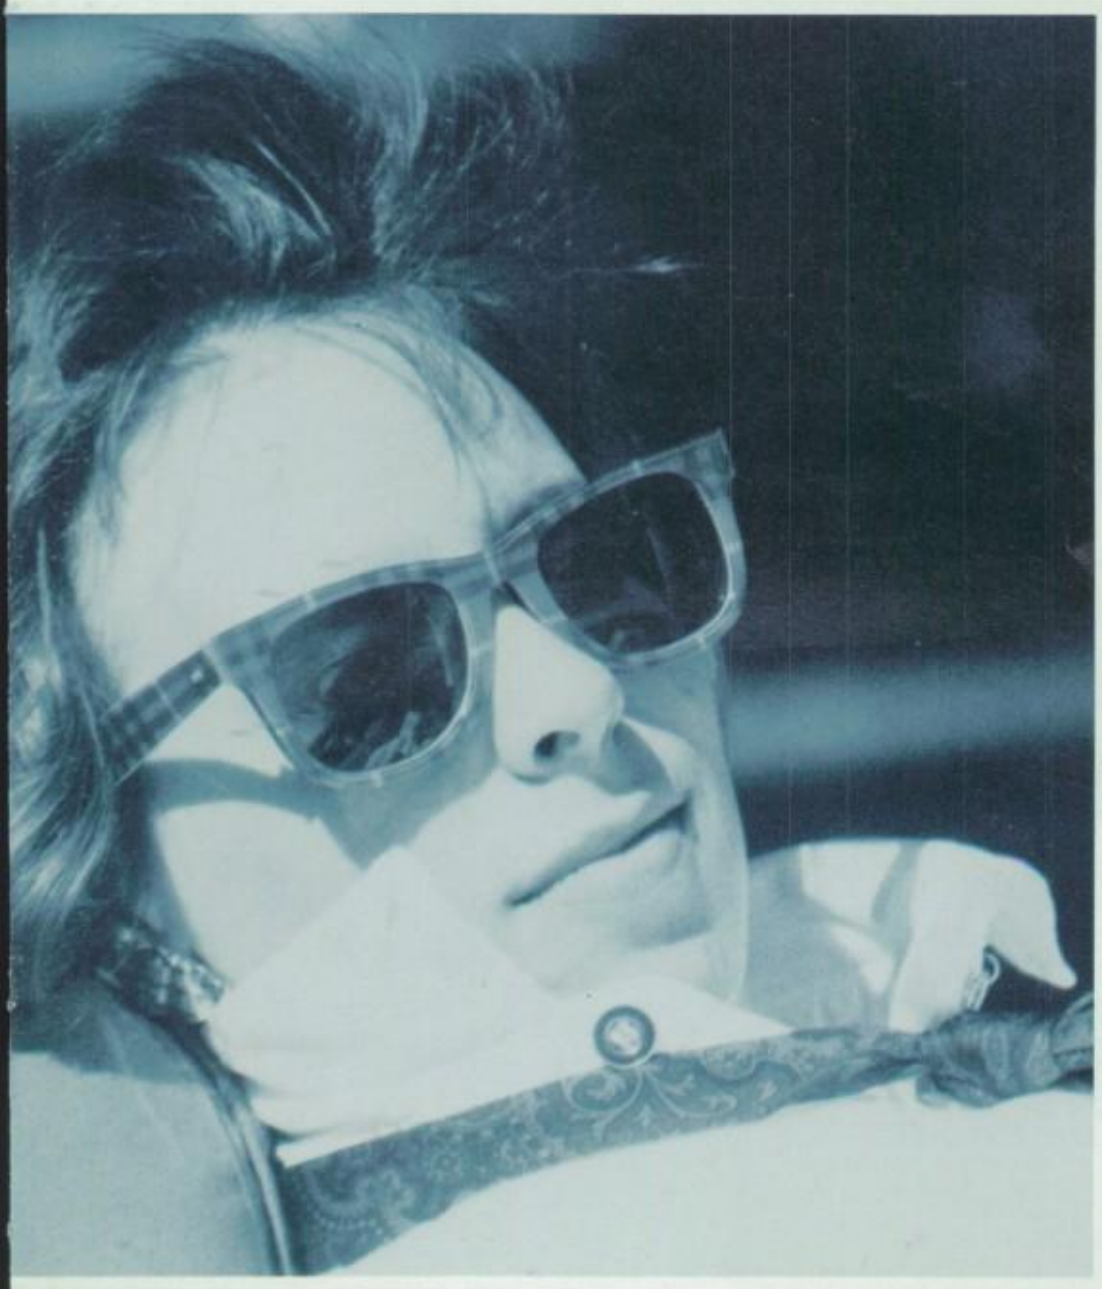
CREDIT



SCOTT McMICHAEL

Scott is a senior who is now 17. He said that he really liked being a freshman because it was a lot better than junior high. During his freshman year he said," Everything was new to me, and I met a lot of new people."

RAY MASSAIA

We cornered Ray during a class that he was probably cutting to find out what this surfer had to say. He's a junior and says," I just like to surf-see-ya!" This shows how much enthusiasm he has toward school.

BRIAN FOSTER

Brian is a freshman who is into sports. He plays J.V. football and hopes to play baseball in the spring. "I haven't felt the tortures of being a freshman as much as some have," says Brian,"but I am looking forward to being a sophomore."

JED THIBODEAU

Jed is a 16-year-old sophomore who says, "Being a freshman was O.K. because the teachers let freshmen get away with anything." Life is much harder for Jed now because he doesn't look as innocent as he did as a freshman.

SOQ TAKES

DAVID VERDUZCO:

"I wouldn't have done as well as I did in school if it weren't for my parents. Due to their constant support I will now be attending Stanford or Cal Berkeley to study economics and math."

DAVID WALLACE:

"Being involved really helped me get a different perspective. It also forced me to study hard because I didn't have as much time to study. Once I got into the habit of learning, it became easier."

HEATHER RADCLIFFE:

" A desire to learn started my good school work and a fear of what my parents would do if I failed kept me going."

ANDY AKIOSHI:

" Our public school system has provided me with a strong educational backing to help me prepare for my college years ahead. I would like to thank my counselor, teachers, parents, and friends."

OUT OF ALL THE SENIORS OF THE CLASS OF 1987 WHAT MAKES THESE YOUNG ADULTS SO SPECIAL? THESE ARE THE STUDENTS THAT HAVE MANAGED TO MAINTAIN A 3.9 OR 4.0 GRADE POINT AVERAGE THROUGHOUT THEIR YEARS AT SOQUEL HIGH. OF COURSE, THIS HAS NOT BEEN EASY FOR ANY OF THESE YOUNG ADULTS. IN FACT, ACHIEVING EXCELLENCE IN CLASSES SUCH AS MR. STANTON'S MATH CLASS OR MRS. IRVINE'S ENGLISH PROGRAM HAS MEANT LOTS OF HARD WORK. THESE STUDENTS REPRESENT THE BEST OF THE ACADEMIC ACHIEVERS AT SOQUEL. IN THE DREADED P.S.A.T./N.M.S.Q.T. CHRISTINE OWENS AND DAVE WALLACE HAVE EARNED THE CHANCE OF BECOMING MERIT SCHOLARS. TO BECOME A SEMI-FINALIST, THEY HAD TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION WHICH INCLUDED ALL HIGH SCHOOL GRADES, DO WELL ON THE P.S.A.T., AND WRITE AN ESSAY. COMPETITION WAS INTENSE, AND THESE STUDENTS ARE TO BE CONGRADULATED. BEING A SEMI FINALIST IS A GREAT HONOR.

Outstanding students - Laura Lande, Lisa Lang, Michele Dixon, Rachel Sweet, Jennifer Trahan, and Grace Chang gathered in the library. These girls have maintained a 3.9 grade average throughout their four years at Soquel.

CHRISTINE OWENS:

" I've been working hard all through school and getting recognized as a 4.0 student has made it worthwhile. Being dedicated to a sport helped me to be dedicated in academics."

DAWN SEVILLE-JONES:

"I'm not a 'brain', I just like to do well in school. I have had some great teachers along the way who've encouraged me to work hard. My parents have influenced me a lot, too. I hope to be successful in the future."

KEN SOWDEN:

"I hope that the one thing students take with them from high school is a love of learning. I know that a lot of students feel like giving up. I have felt the same many times. But I encourage everyone to keep going. Enjoy these four years; they go by fast."

CHRISTINE HOEFER:

"When I started high school I never really had any intensions of getting the grades I did it just kind of happened. I've had a lot of fun here, and my best advice is for people to take school seriously but not to a point where grades are everything."

STUDENT

HUGH MURRAY:

Hugh Murray, a senior football player at Soquel, said that his biggest regret in high school was," Getting a perm. It made me look like a real dork."Well, if he did have a perm, it is definately not apparent now.-Hugh Murray

ROC PIFFERINI:

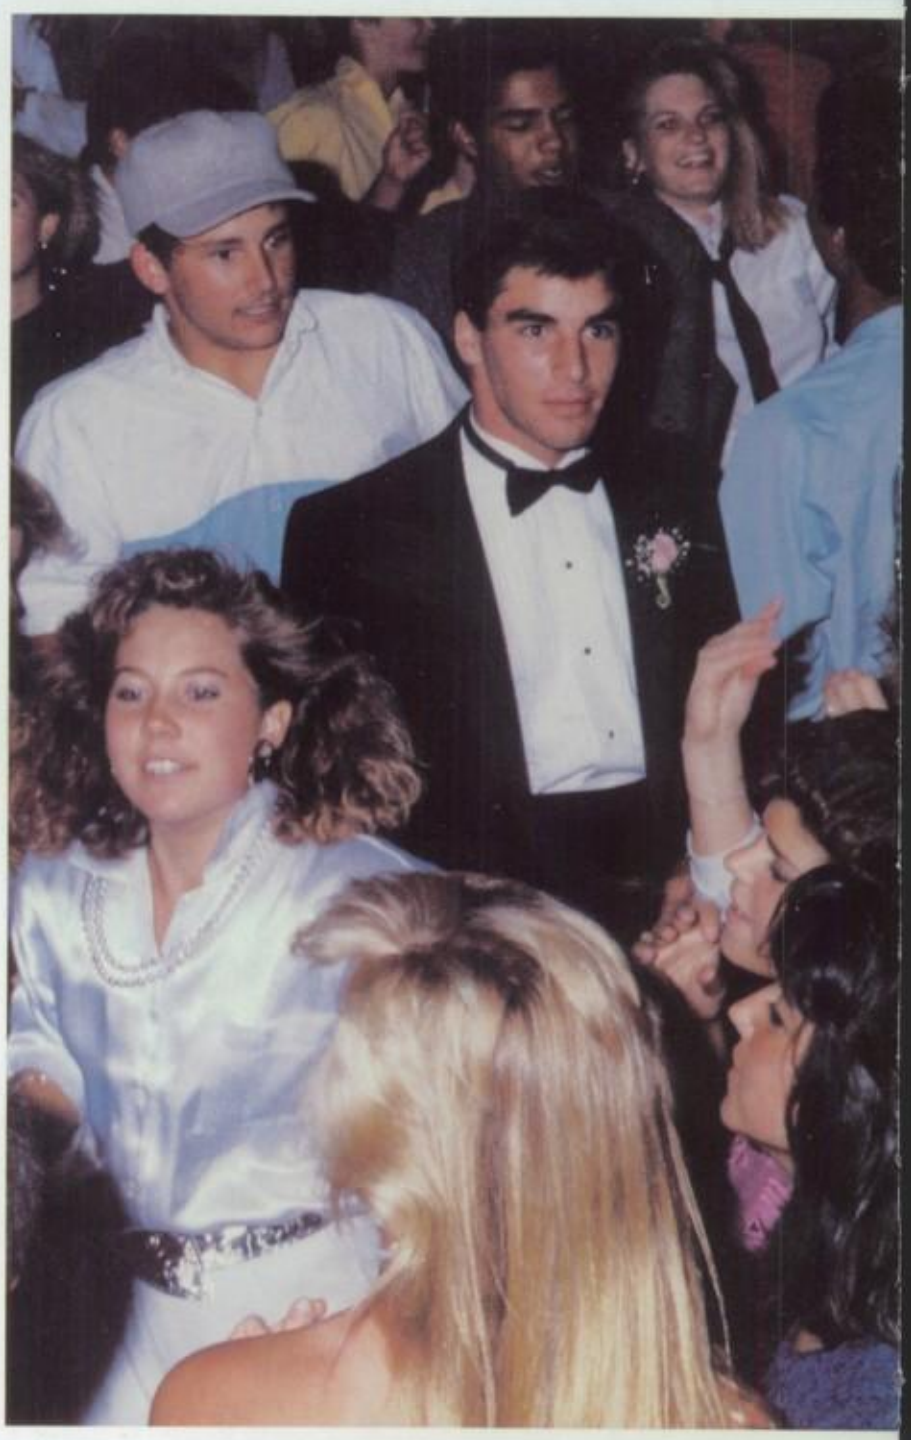
For Roc Pifferini, a senior at Soquel, his biggest regret in high school was not asking Jamie Hesse out. Rock ended the conversation by saying," Jamie Hesse is one hot chick!"-Roc Pifferini

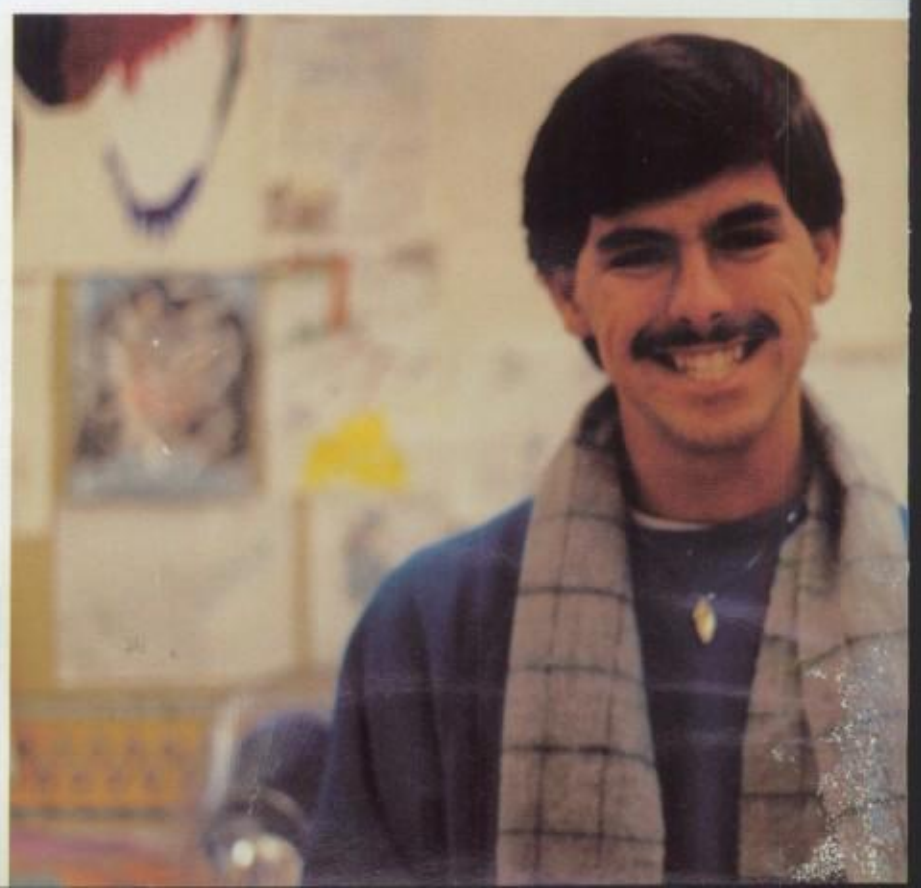
PHIL BULLARD:

In responce to a question asked by the yearbook class, Phil Bullard said that the only thing that he regretted doing most at Soquel was," Taking the SAT prep with Mrs. Till. I had a deep physical attraction towards her, but she didn't like me."-Phil Bullard

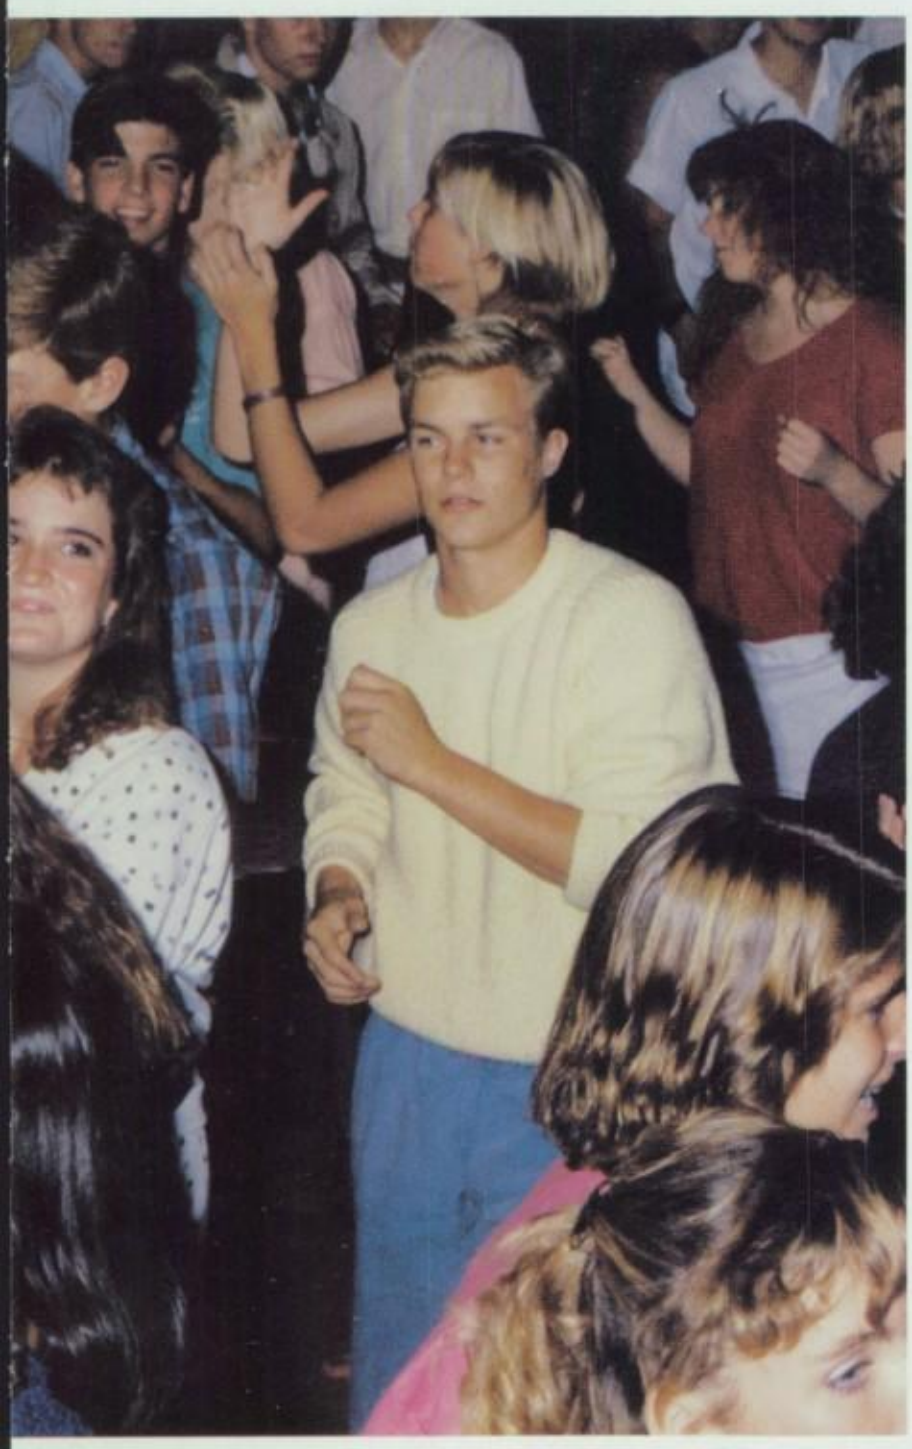
RUSTY LAPIOLI:

Rusty Lapioli has a really good outlook on life. When asked what he regretted most in high school he said, "I don't regret anything that happened in high school. You learn from everything you do- good and bad. That's life." With that attitude, he'll go far.-Rusty Lapioli





LIFE



FOR THE PAST TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, STUDENTS AT SOQUEL HIGH HAVE PARTICIPATED IN MANY DIFFERENT SCHOOL AND NON-SCHOOL ACTIVITIES. THESE ACTIVITIES RANGE FROM GOING TO THE BEACH TO DANCING IN SAN FRANCISCO. SOQUEL IS MORE THAN JUST A PLACE TO LEARN. IT IS ALSO A PLACE WHERE YOUNG ADULTS CAN INTERACT AND LEARN TO APPRECIATE ONE ANOTHER FOR WHO AND WHAT THEY ARE.

High schools, in general, are known for their cliques and rivalries, but at Soquel this is really not the case. Students at Soquel generally are very open minded and interact extremely well with each other. Soquel is a school where people from all different groups and classes can interelate with one another.

Over the past twenty-five years Soquel has only improved. Our wonderful sports program and our academic programs have made all of us proud. At one time Soquel High was thought of as a school for losers, but today we are known for being a great school where young adults go to get a fabulous education and to have fun. Soquel offers a lot to each and every student and will continue to do so for a long time to come.

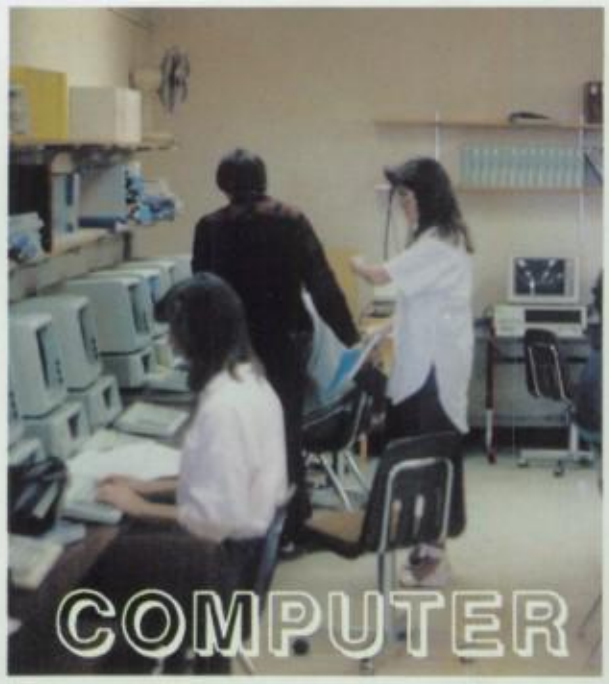
CLIQUES



SOQUEL HIGH STUDENTS CAN NOT BE CATEGORIZED INTO ONE MAJOR GROUP. WE'RE KNOWN AS THE MELTING POT OF SANTA CRUZ COUNTY. HERE YOU'LL FIND EVERY KIND OF PERSON, FROM A CONSERATIVE SOCHE TO A FAR OUT MODERNIST. MANY STUDENTS COME TO SOQUEL KNOWNING THEY'LL BE ACCEPTED FOR WHAT THEY ARE. "I HAVEN'T HAD ONE PERSON MAKE FUN OF MY LONG HAIR YET," SAID MATT JACKSON, FORMER APTOS STUDENT.

Among the inevitable cliques at Soquel are many different views on high school life. Some base their views around football games and school activities, whereas others base their's on music or academics. Soquel cliques, unlike most high schools, express little competition between groups. We're open minded to most cliques and our well rounded campus shows it.

Cliques are inherent despite our open minded school. We have devided the school into these general groups. Each share different views on dress, values and after school activities. Each are individual but still share some common ground. They are accepting of each other.

HOMECOMING

HOMECOMING WAS ONE OF THE BIG HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR. THERE HAVE BEEN MANY HOMECOMINGS AT SOQUEL, BUT THIS YEAR'S WAS BY FAR THE BEST. IT STARTED OFF WITH A WEEK OF ACTIVITIES BEFORE THE BIG GAME WHICH INCLUDED THE ANNOUNCEMENT THAT CORRINE SLINKEY WAS THE 1986-87 HOMECOMING QUEEN, AND THE OPENING OF THE NEW FIELD AND BLEACHERS.

HOMECOMING 1986/87 WAS SOMEWHAT SPECIAL THIS YEAR. TO SHOW OUR APPRECIATION TOWARDS ONE OF OUR LONG TIME EMPLOYEES, DEWEY TOMPKINS, WE DEDICATED OUR NEWLY BUILT STADIUM TO HIM.

During an assembly the day before the Homecoming Game, Coach Dewey Tompkins was presented with a plaque expressing appreciation for his twenty-five years at Soquel.

Although the stadium was not in its complete state, the bleachers were finished a day before the homecoming game, which made this homecoming a little more pleasurable than others in the past.

To top of the excitement of the homecoming queen crowning, the last five minutes of the game kept the fans on the edge of their seats. As the fourth quarter ended, the varsity football team found themselves in a tie with the Harbor Pirates. It was decided that a California tie breaker would be used to break this tie. Soquel, of course, came out on top once again. All in all, with the crowning of Corrine Slinky as Homecoming Queen, an exciting victory over Harbor, and a beautiful fall day, the entire event was a huge sucess.

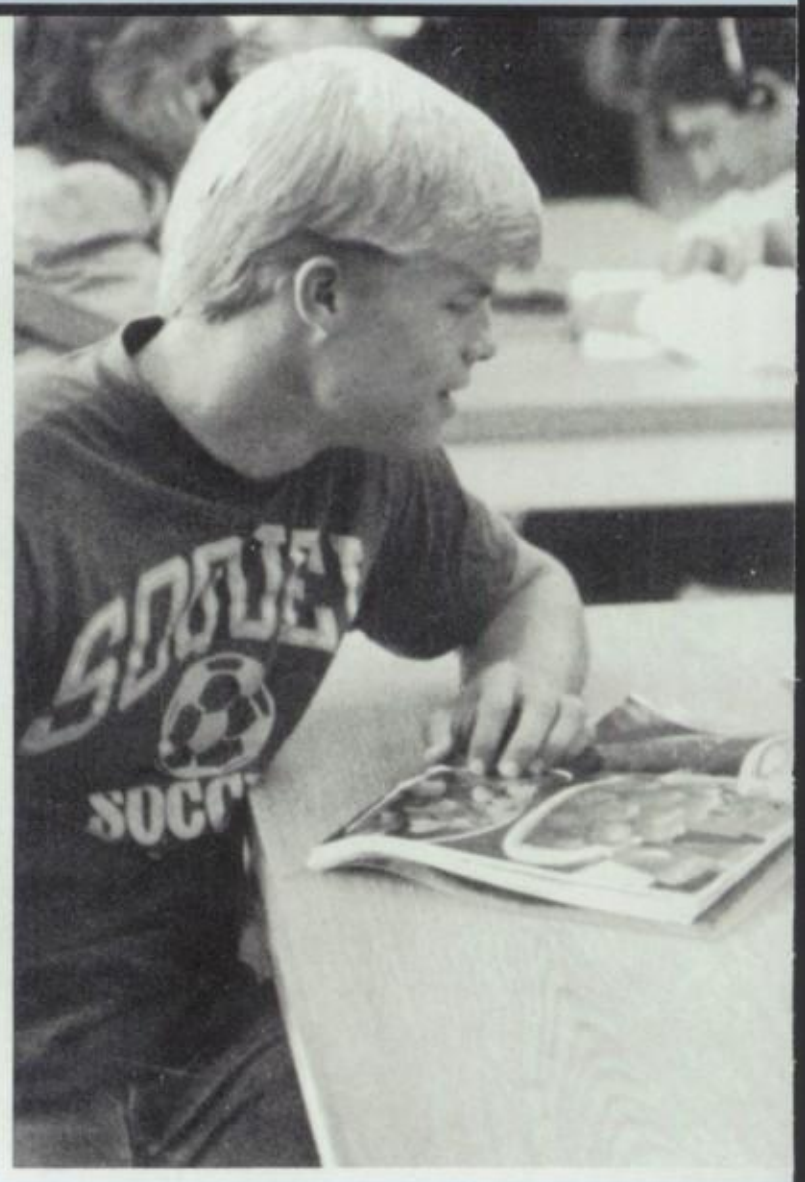
OFF CAMPUS SCHOLARS

NOT ALL OF SOQUEL-HIGHS STUDENTS-STAY ON CAMPUS ALL DAY. SOME FIND THEMSELVES ATTENDING U.C.S.C. OR CABRILLO COLLEGE CLASSES. THESE STUDENTS ARE "OFF CAMPUS SCHOLARS",

The high school honors program at the University of California, Santa Cruz provides a bridge to college for qualified seniors. These seniors, if accepted to the program, may take one or two U.C.S.C. courses per quarter and receive full university credit. This program is designed to provide classes that are unavailable or are more advanced than those that are offered at Soquel. There are other benefits to this program as well. For example, not only does it look good on a college application, but if you remain at U.C, you don't have to reapply for admission because you have already been accepted into the program. Should you choose to attend a different U.C. or other campus, then the work credits are transferable.

The Cabrillo College program is open tho juniors and seniors regardless of G.P.A. It too, provides a larger and more advanced selection of courses . The students may also choose whether or not they receive high school or college credits for their work.
Both of these programs provide the college bound student a head start on their freshman year and are also an excellent chance to experience college.



"Taking a class at Cabrillo is really great," reports Matt Henne as he takes a break from his books.

ERIC BERGTHOLD- U.C.S.C., SOUTH-EAST ASIAN CIVILIZATION. "IT'S KIND OF STRANGE HAVING 250 PEOPLE IN MY CLASS, THE TEACHER HAS TO USE A MICROPHONE."

Michelle Bettencourt-Cabrillo, Calculus.

"You're more on your own. You don't have to do the homework assignments, but it helps when the tests come."

Glen Watson-Cabrillo , Calculus.

"If you want to pursue a field that classes aren't offered here, it's a great experience."

Mathew Henne- Cabrillo, English

"I did it because, It's more credits. It takes less time to complete the course."

Vicki Adams- Cabrillo, Chemistry II

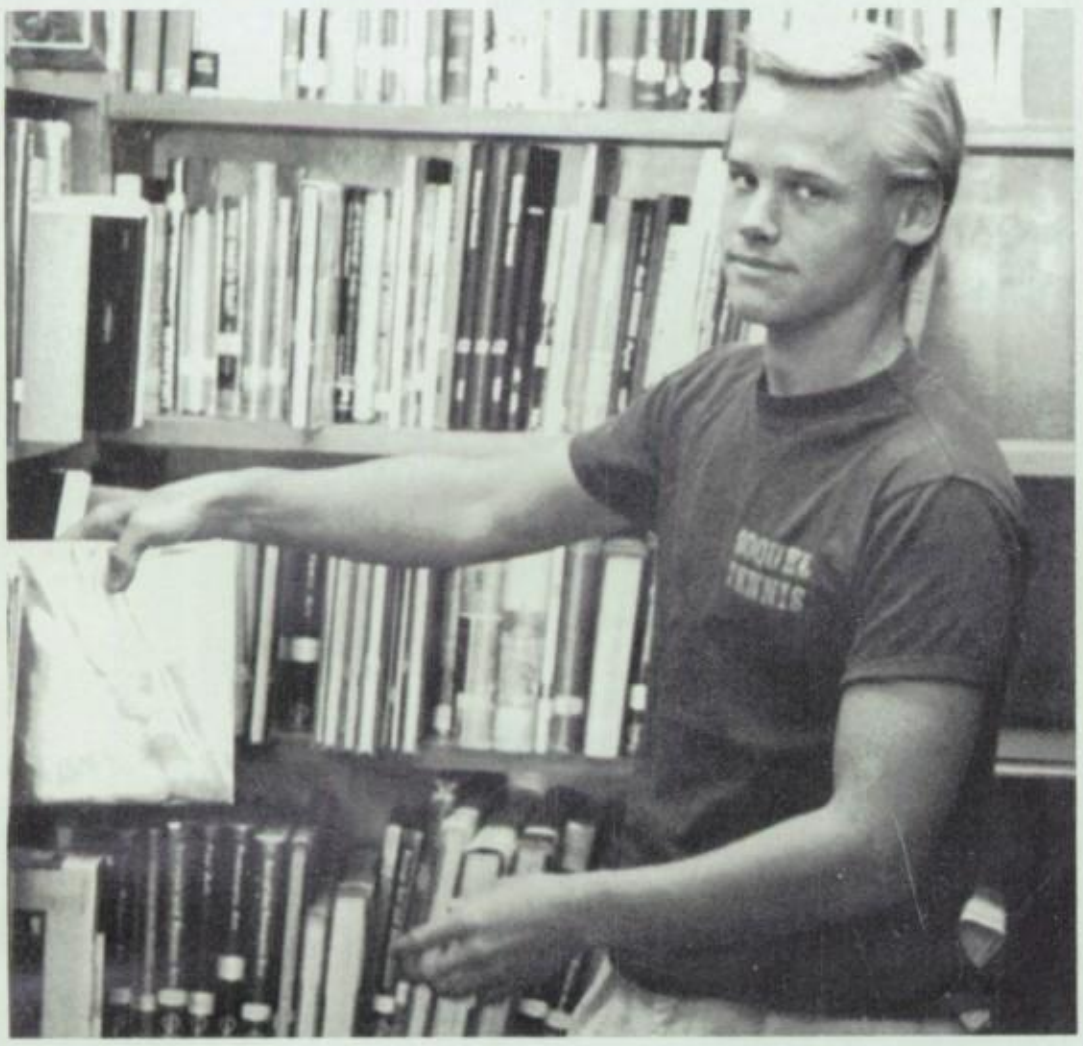
"I took the class because I wanted to get a head start in college. I learned one year of chemistry in six weeks. It was intense."

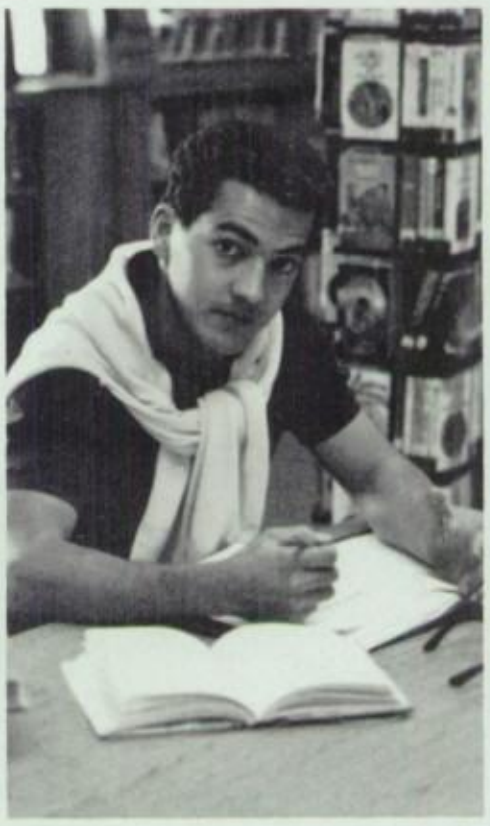
David Verduzco- Cabrillo, Calculas

" The main difference between high school and college is that in college you have to be self-motivated and disciplined to do your home work and show up for class. You truly are, on your own."

Off campus classes still allow time for Randy Starbird, Andy Akiyoshi, and Eric Bergthold to go in Soquel's library.

Margo Dickey shuffels through papers in perpartion for a class.





Attending an off-campus class takes extra time, so Ben Amini gets right to work.

Reference materials are close at hand for Eric Bergthold.

FASHION

FASHION AT SOQUEL IS BASED ON MORE THAN GOOD LOOKS. OUR STUDENTS USE FASHION AS A WAY OF EXPRESSING THEMSELVES. THERE ARE A MYRIAD OF VIEWS ON DIFFERENT FORMS OF DRESS. WE HAVE HIGHLIGHTED THESE GROUPS THAT DOMINATE OUR CAMPUS.

Soche's, Surfers, and New Wavers dress for comfort and usefulness. The Heavy Metalers and Post Modernist seem to have the strongest feelings about dressing the way they do. This makes their styles stand out more, and gives more reason for debate among groups. There are endless styles of dress. Here at Soquel, the students use their various styles to express themselves as the unique individuals that they really are.

QUAD

JAMIE HESSE

These "soches" seem to have the timeless look. This is a popular look because students get comfort and a conservative functional look. They don't feel their way is necessarily best, but it suits them fine.

POST MODERNIST

DEMIAN SHERINIAN

MATT JACKSON

Post modernist, a group unfamiliar to most, includes those who consider themselves ahead of their time and on top of it all. These avant garde individuals don't like to conform to any particular group. They dress in a way that is conscious of all styles, taking some attributes for themselves and thus in essence creating a style of their own.

SURFER

CAROL

The surfers say that their dress in comfortable and is much better than the black leather that the "mods" and "corpes" wear. They obviously show enthusiasm for their sport by wearing surfing emblems on their clothes.

PUNKERS

FIFI WALTHER
CHRIS BAKER

These rebel youth say that their dress definitely reflects their feelings, and they think of it as a big part of their lives. Fifi and Chris say that they can hardly remember when they didn't dress this way. They say their dress is infleunced by their music, but it isn't the only driving force.

HEAVY METAL

CHRIS BURNS
ROXANNE DICK

Heavy metalers obviously base their appearance on musical preference. Pat Turner says that he likes to "stand out" when he goes out. He relates to the attitudes of the musicians he listens to.

NEWWAVE

JON MORENO

From their picture, it is evident that some thought goes into the way these new wavers dress. They say there is no one way to dress, and they don't base their dress on a musical performance. They don't seem to have very exact answers about why they dress the way they do. This causes society to question their motives.

RALLIES

THE NOONTIME RALLIES WERE A GREAT SUCESS THIS YEAR. THERE WAS MORE SCHOOL SPIRT THIS YEAR THAN IN THE PAST, WITH MORE PEOPLE SHOWING INTEREST AND PARTICIPATION. WE HAD EVENTS SUCH AS: THE DATING GAME, VOLLEYBALL GAME, WATERMELON WITH VASALINE TOSS, AND THE HOMECOMING RALLY.

Thanks to fantastic planning by the A.S.B. rally committee and a lot of school participation, the noontime rallies were a huge success. Hopefully they will continue to show the spirit of Soquel High.

The spirtleaders especially put a lot of time and effort in making these rallies worthwhile. Doug Feldon thought these rallies were "Sweet", and Phil Banzuik felt, "Sometimes they're neat, but when they gag they are funny." Some cheeleaders practiced five hours a week, along with cheering at football games. In the words of Jeff Lansing, "They are completely inspirational, but second to surfing."

Pumpkin carvers dig in during the contest at lunch

IT WAS FRIDAY OCTOBER 31ST. THIS WAS NO ORDINARY FRIDAY NIGHT. OCTOBER 31ST IS THE DAY THAT YOUNGSTERS DREAM ABOUT, AND PARENTS DREAD AND THE DENTISTS ANTICIPATE.

For the students at Soquel, the fun lasted all day long. The Soquel campus looked more like the audition for a freak show, rather than a high school campus. Guys dressed up as nuns and girls in French maid costumes colored the halls on Halloween.

Teachers definately outdid themselves. Mrs. Wilson really surprised us all in her cave women costume. At lunch, the quad came alive during the pumpkin carving contest. Randy Boysen and Doug Feldon surprised us by creating a pumpkin that took first prize.

Not many students from other schools had the enjoyment of being able to dress up on Halloween and show off their wacky costumes at school. While conducting an opinion survey, not one person said that the tradition should be halted. Trisha Martorella added, "I think they should keep up the tradition of dressing up on Halloween because it's extremely satisfying to see so many students get into their school spirit."

Karl Grubaugh said, "Halloween used to be a fun children's holiday which unfortunately has become an excuse for too much general debauchery."

All in all, it was a raging success with only a few reports of thunderous headaches. Keep the tradition alive in the future Soquel!

I sure am happy she's not my sister!

Her new name is "Tony the typing tiger."

EXPOSE YOURSE

THEY, WE'RE IN THE QUAD, IN THE HALLS, AND IN THE CLASS ROOMS. THE SECOND ANNUAL CAMERA DAY CAME OFF WITH THE SMOOTH CLICK OF A SHUTTER AS KNIGHTS EXPOSED ALL THE DIFFERENT ASPECTS OF LIFE AT SCHOOL.

Camera Day was sponsored by the Citadel staff, and everyone was encouraged to submit their photos for use in the yearbook. Inspired by their chance to win a free yearbook and expose themselves and their friends, both first time photographers and camera buffs alike turned in their efforts.

David Verduzco captured first place with his photo of Roc giving his sis, Rae Ann, some support. Since first place was awarded to the Senior Editor of the yearbook, the prize went to Ben Olson with his picture of Mike Stroup bangin' his head in the music room.

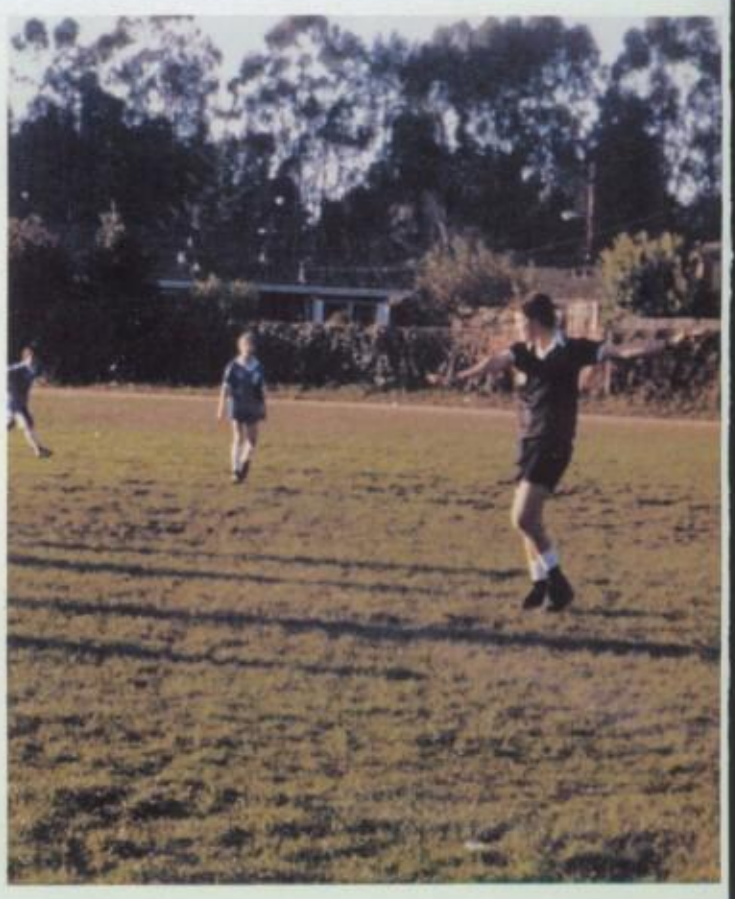
SOQUEL AT WORK

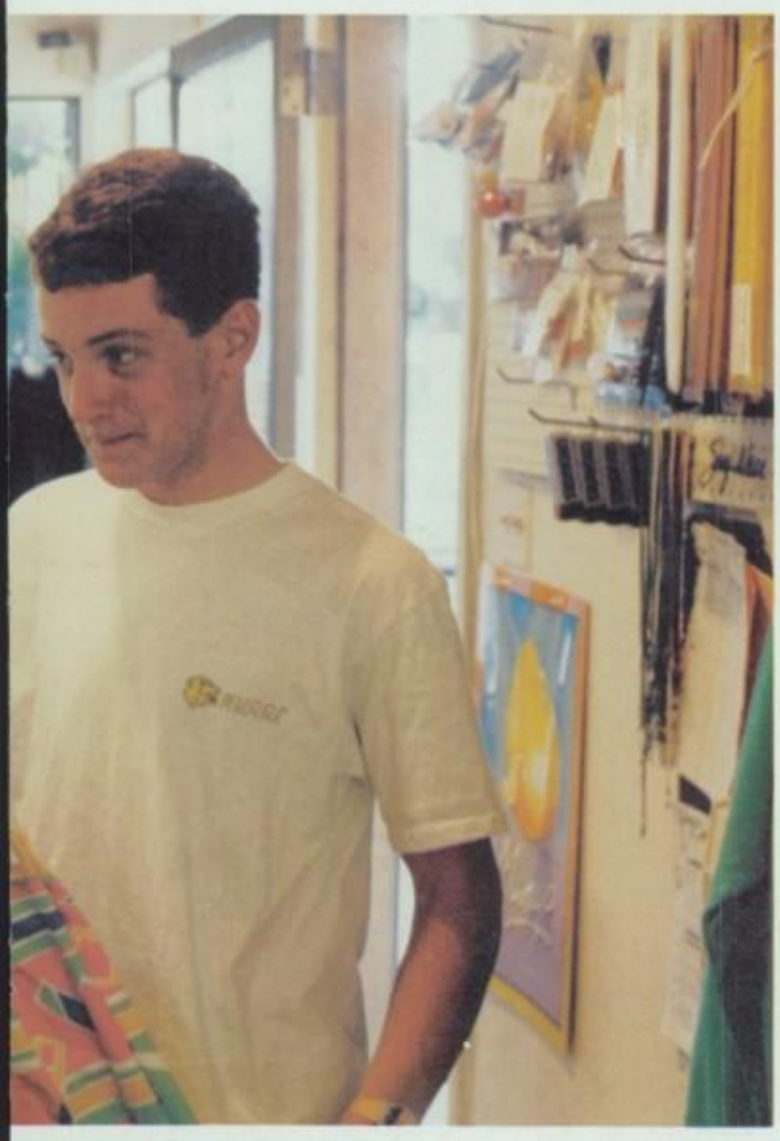
ONE OF THE MAIN CONCERNS OF HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS THESE DAYS SEEMS TO BE TO HAVE MONEY. THERE'S ALWAYS SOMETHING ON OUR MINDS THAT WE'D LIKE TO BUY. THUS, STUDENTS HAVING THEIR OWN JOBS ARE ABLE TO BUY CLOTHES, CONCERT TICKETS, CARS AND OTHER "TEEN NECESSITIES". LUCKILY, THERE ARE MANY DIFFERENT OPPORTUNITIES FOR TEENAGERS HERE IN SANTA CRUZ. LOCAL MERCHANTS ARE USUALLY INTERESTED IN HARD WORKING TEENS FOR ALL TYPES OF JOBS.

Bruce Novak worked for Custom Design Roofing. Many video places have jobs available for teens. Both Julie Barnes and Glen Barnes work at Bay Video. David Asam worked at Seabright Video in Santa Cruz.

Lying around on the job, Karen Fickett and Jason Price pose for a shot.



Ashley Edger gets his weekend money by refereeing socce games.



SOQUEL HIGH HAS AN EXCITING PROGRAM FOR STUDENTS WHO WORK AND GO TO SCHOOL. MRS. KRESS WAS THE TEACHER IN CHARGE OF OUR WORK EXPERIENCE PROGRAM. "THIS CLASS GAVE STUDENTS A CHANCE TO EARN SCHOOL CREDITS AND LEARN ABOUT THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF HAVING A JOB," STATED MRS. KRESS. STUDENTS COULD EARN BETWEEN FIVE AND TEN CREDITS EACH SEMESTER AND MAKE SOME EXTRA MONEY AS WELL. STUDENTS IN THE PROGRAM HAD VARIED TYPES OF WORK FROM SAM BLAINE'S JOB AT VALLE VOLVO TO SALLIE JONE'S POSITION AT ELDERCARE HOSPITAL. THE CLASS ALSO INVOLVED WEEKLY MADITORY MEETINGS WHERE STUDENTS DISCUSSED TAXES, INTERVIEWS, RESUMES, AND JOB TRANSITIONS.

SOQUEL SURFERS

A TYPICAL DAY IN THE LIFE OF A SOQUEL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT WHO SURFS USUALLY STARTS OUT WITH A PATROL AT THE CRACK OF DAWN. IT IS COLD AND DAMP, BUT THE ENERGY INSIDE YOU KEEPS YOU WARM.

As you see the waves rolling along your favorite beach, you are beyond the discomfort of the temperature. Being the first one out is usually rewarding, and most of the time. It;s worth slipping out of your comfortable, warm bed-sheets at home, As the day progresses, the crowd tends to thicken and the wind picks up.

After going home and empyting your food cabinets, you can do one of the three things: 1) Sleep-a very alluring prospect. 2) Go out again at one of the wind blocked breaks like the Hook of first peak if you don't mind having fifty bright colored wetsuits covered buoys in your way. 3) Go tend to some responsibilities that tend to get backed up.

One of these three options usually will carry you through the day, just in time for you to paddle out after the winds turn offshore. What other life is there?

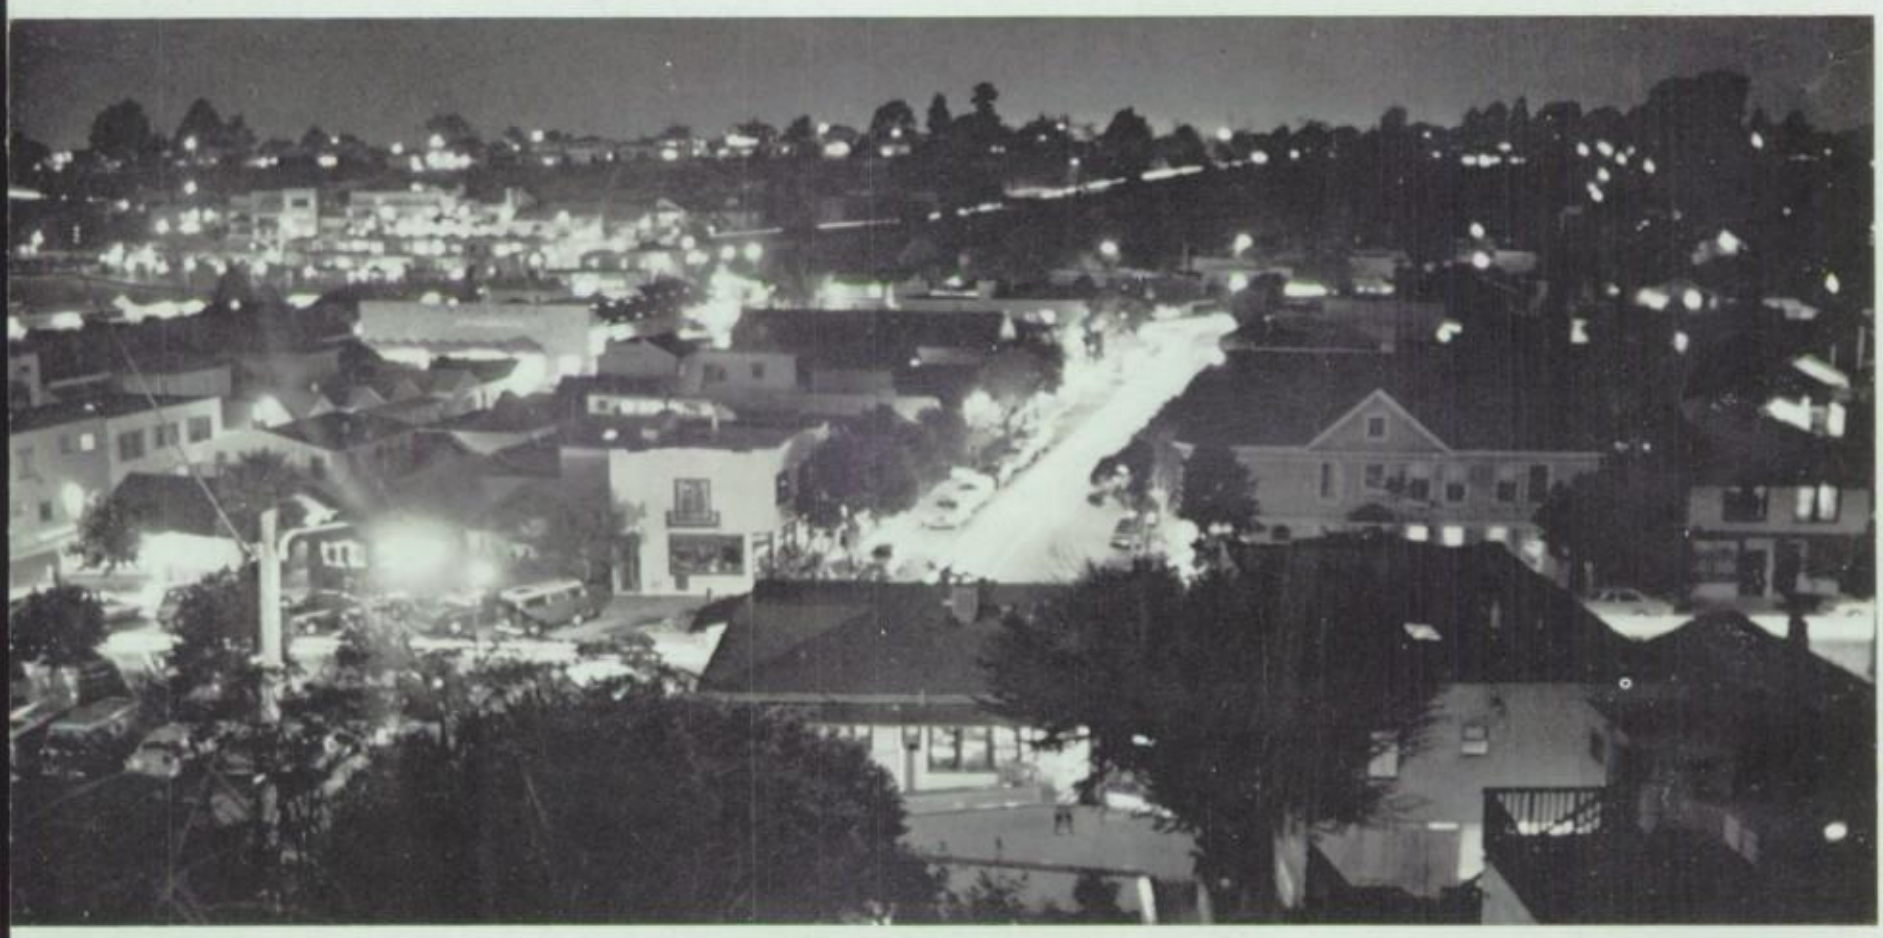
KNIGHT LIFE

KNIGHT LIFE

During the day, Soquel High School students fill their time with school itself, participating in after school activities such as after school sports, or working on plays, part time jobs are also very important, and so is finishing up homework. But what do these students do for fun and relaxation at night? During the week students take evening aerobics classes, attend Young Life on Wednesday nights, and hang on with their friends at Mr. Toots. On weekends, the evenings are different because these students put on their party clothes and have fun. Dances, movies, drive-ins, and dinners out with a special person fill the time on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights. Some of the hot movies this year were Top Gun, A Room With A View, Blue Velvet, and Platoon.



Above: Mr. Toots is a local favorite for relaxing and studying with friends. Left: Good community relations with our sheriffs dept. is important to Soquel High School.

Season's Greetings

"A Knight to Remember"

Kim Veltenhenzen, Paul Pabpus, and Laurie Grey make up this happy threesome.

The winter formal was definitely "A Knight to Remember". It was held on Saturday night, December 13, at Cabrillo College. The excitement all started with girls buying lacy, satiny, even metallic dresses all different styles and lengths. The guys went as far as wearing brightly colored ties and cumberbunds and even socks to match. Some carried canes. Three couples even sported tuxedos-girls and guys!

After the mad rush of getting ready, people traveled as far as San Francisco or to Monterey for dinner. The Chart House, Sardine Factory and the Hiltor were all great choices for dinner. The dance started at 9:00. Couples were dropped off in limousines as well as those who drove Mercedes, BMW'S, and Honda's.

While walking into the Cabrillo College Student Center, rose, aqua, and silver decorations were finely placed everywhere to make the atmosphere spectacular. Music was played by a professional disc jockey from Spectrum Music.

DRAMA

Due to tne talents of Charles DeWald, the drama director, the drama program at Soquel High is now one of the best in Santa Cruz county because of his extraordinary talents. Both beginning and advance-dacting classes were offered and were able to produce two productions this year, one of which was produced in collaberation with the music department.

Our beginning acting class helped students overcome the fear of acting. Our advanced acting class put emphasis on scene work, and learning how to act in front of an audience.

One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest was the main production for this year. It was a superbly acted play, and drew in a great number of people. As stated before, Soquel High has one of the strongest drama programs in the county, and this play definitely proved this!

Because of a tie in ballot count, we had six Winter Sweetheart nominees instead of five. They were Amy Caltibiano, Lisa Larsen, Lisa Newton, Rachel Sweet, Shannon Wolf, and Jonell Yantis. At the rally on Thursday, February 5th, the student body was introduced to these six nominees and listened to all that they had done during their four years here. Lisa Larsen was then crowned as the Winter Sweetheart for 1987 at the Basketball game on Saturday, February 6th. After the game there was a Winter Sweetheart dance to celebrate Lisa's newly given title. Everyone who attended seemed to be having a great time.

The Winter Sweetheart dance was a sucessful one. Mike Ruger was the Dj for the first half of the Dance, then the scene changed to the viewing of Soquel's own band, The Trip.

CAPITOL TRIP: AN EXPERIENCE

The Close-Up Foundation is a non-profit, multipartisan organization dedicated to encouraging citizen involvement in the government. They run a Washington seminar program that brings high school students, teachers, and older Americans to the nation's capitol for a week-long, onsite learning experience.

This year fourteen students from Soquel participated in the enriching learning experience; they are: Grace Chang, Cecilia Cervantes, Erin Cassidy, Trish Dorr, Robbie Detlefs, Matt Lindsay, Kevin McGibben, Dave Wallace, Azul (Blue) Terronez, Robert Gale, Billy Maxfield, Chad Merriam, Danny Wood, Brian Patrick, and Mr. Willis as the advisor.

1600 Pennsylvania Ave., one of the world's famous addresses and the nation's most famous house—The White House.

"Hang Loose," says a group of Soquel's students at the Sheraton Hotel in Silver Springs.

At 555 ft. 5 and ⅝ in., it was the tallest masonry structure in the world, and if one wanted to get to the top in the early 1900's, there were 897 winding steps and 50 landings before one can see the spectacular view of "The Federal City."

(lt. to rt.): D. Wood, D. Wallace, B. Patrick, E. Cassidy, B. Maxfield, M. Lindsay, R. Gale, R. Detlefs, C. Cervantes, G. Chang, K. McGibbens, T. Dorr, C. Merriam, and Mr. Tim Willis.

COMPUTER LAB

The computer lab has become a very important part of Soquel High's curriculum. Since it's start in 1983, the lab has grown to contain some thirty computers. Mrs. Glenna Harlamoff has spent a great deal of time working with students and teachers. From 7am to 3pm, including lunch and brunch, she is there to share her computer expertise. As students work on their English reports or their write-ups for science labs, they learn the basics about computers and how much of a help they can be. Soquel High has done a very good job at introducing these computers to its students. Keep up the good work.

"The best part of my job is that we all are learning to use these machines together. There always seems to be something new to make work go easier, faster, and better. I'm having fun."- Glenna Harlamoff.

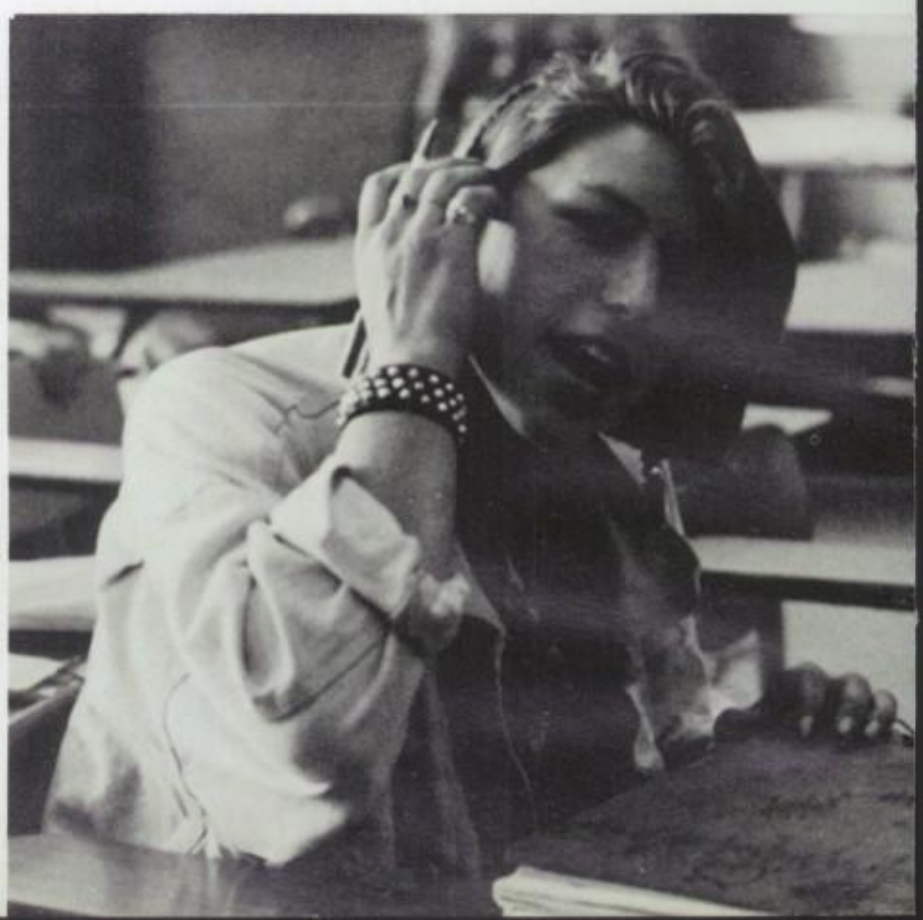
SE

Randy Boysen:" My senior year has definitely been a blast. I have managed to maintain my grades and have fun too. I will always remember my four fun (ha! ha!) years at Soquel."

Randy Starbird: " My senior year has been awesome. I'm glad I'm graduating but I'll miss my friends, which I've come to know throughout high school."

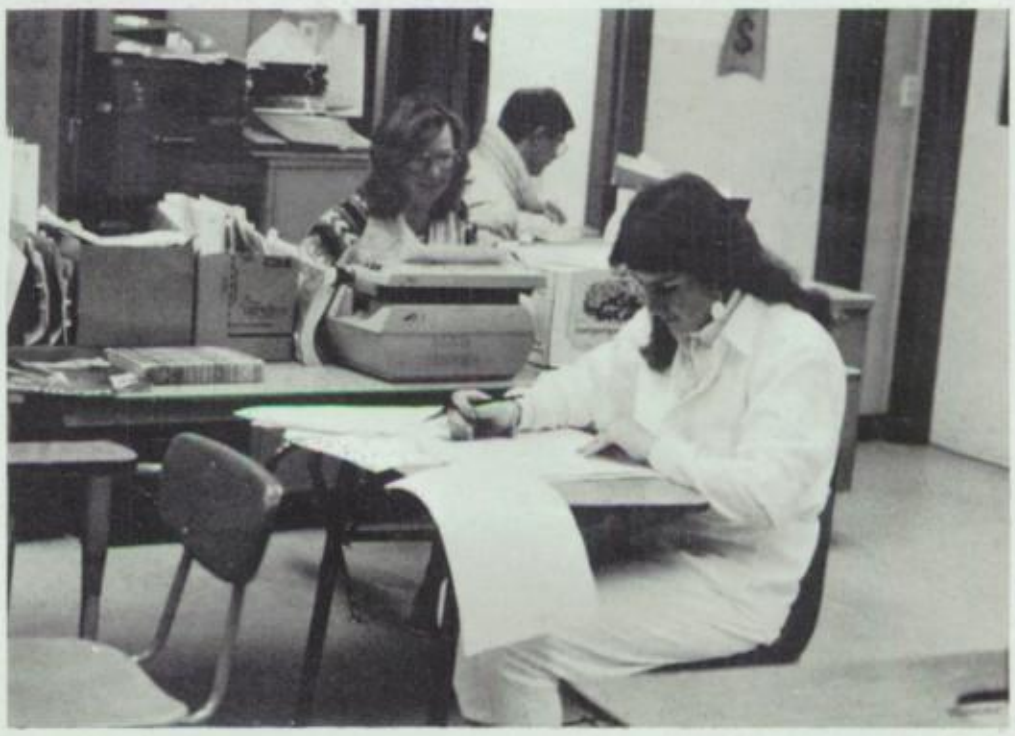
Layne McRae: " It seems like it took so long to become a senior- it's a killer. Especially my special beauty in the library."

Liz Zilm: "Throughout my four years at Soquel, my close friends have remained behind me through many new and exciting experiences, and that's a great thing."



NIORS

Each graduating class has it's young Einsteins and it's class clowns. The class of 1987 is no exception. We have managed to shine just as bright, if not brighter that any class in the twenty five year history of Soquel. We have learned about ourselves and each other. We have conquered lifes imperfections with help from one another. Although we had our cliques and special friends, there has been a sense of comraderie among the class as a whole. These past four years haven't always seemed like the best years of our lives, but the knowledge we have gained in and out of school will always be a part of us. No one will forget the formals and proms, Soquel Psycho's, first loves, and so many more special memories. Today we are Soquel High Graduates, tomorrow we are the movers and the shakers of this world. Watch out!



The many different personalities of this graduating class have made each day a new adventure. Lupe Rivas works diligently.

If there were two people left on earth and you were one who would you want the other to be and why?

ADAM CALTABIANO

A sophmore who plays on the Soquel Varsity Football Team as a middle line backer and is looking foward to become a junior. He enjoys sports and girls. Answering to the question above he replied," Paulina (girl on the cover of Sports Illustrated Swim Suit Issue), because she's just a dream and it seems as though it would be very enjoyable."

MICHELLE COSTELLA

A junior who has enjoyed the last three years at Soquel and has come to know and meet a lot of friendly people. When asked the question she answered,"Jason Woodall because he is the sweetest person I know and we could have fun together- just the two of us."

MARK REITMAN

A junior who loves playing soccer during his spare time and has a part-time job working for his father. He and a friend sometimes act as DJ's for local parties. When asked the question he simply remarked,"Erin Terra because she is such a wild woman, and I like women who are wild!"

MICHAEL PRICE

A freshman, one of the many who commutes from their homes in Scotts Valley has really enjoyed his first year here. He likes the people and was really surprised at the teachers' enthusiasm with the students He was involved with The Big Brother/Sister program this year. His answer was,"My mom, because she's such a neat lady."

ASSES

DO YOU HAVE ANY IDEA OF THE COST OF A HAMBURGER 25 YEARS AGO? BELIEVE IT OR NOT, SOQUEL HIGH STUDENTS IN 1963 STUFFED THEMSELVES WITH HAMBURGERS FOR ONLY 19 CENTS A PIECE.

The lifestyles of students have really changed over the last 25 years. In 1963 , after school jobs for girls were almost unheard of. Learning how to run a home was much more important at that time than learning about the business world. Over half the females at Soquel High in 1986 hold jobs in very diverse fields.

The lifestyles aren't the only thing that have drastically changed. The campus itself has gone through some major alterations since 1963. The quad as we know it today was little more than a patch of grass and two picnic tables. Where did the footboall team sit? If you planned on playing volleyball or going swimming, you had to go to the beach. The fine pool and volleyball courts that we have on our campus today did not exist in 1963. For the last 25 years, Soquel High has been a leader in sports and academics. Soquel has changed quite a bit over the last 25 years, but with each graduating class, Soquel just keeps getting better.

Jeanna Scarbourgh is a junior with a dream of becoming a professional singer. She is presently a member of the Soquel High Jazz and concert choir, and has been a member of the CCS Honor Choir. "That was my most memorable moment."

When Jeanna was asked about her most embarrassing moment at Soquel High, her reply was, "One day I was making fun of the way Gordon Spaulding danced and his friends were standing right behind me. I was so embarrassed."

One thing Jeanna likes about Soquel is that the people are nice and friendly. "If I could change one thing about Soquel, no one would be categorized into cliques."

"My freshman year, after school one day, I saw a guy I liked and was trying to impress him, but a friend of mine kicked my leg out from under me and I fell in the mud. It was so embarassing!"

Jenny has had her share of ups and downs and has many more to come. Hopefully for her, there will be more ups. When asked about her future Jenny replied,"I want to be happy and sucessful in whatever I do."

As a junior, Serge Merino has enjoyed his three years at Soquel High very much. Serge likes the people and is proud to be a student at Soquel. When Serge was asked about his most memorable moment he replied, "I was scuba diving off Santa Barbara, and I caught my first lobster. I was really excited about it." Serge hasn't had too many embarrassing moments in his life, but there is one that stands out. "I couldn't believe it. I was walking through the smoking section right after it had rained. All of a sudden I slipped and fell right into a mud hole. It was really embarrassing. Serge has great future plans which include going to a four year college, but at this point he is not sure what his major will be. "One of my biggest goals in life is to sail around the world. That would be the greatest accomplishment for me in my life-time."

When Eric was asked about his most embarrassing moment as Soquel High his reply was, "During the Harbor and Soquel homecoming game I caught a pass and then proceeded to run out of bounds where I slipped on a board that was covering a part of the new track. It was worse watching it on T.V., I was really embarrassed." Eric's future plans include attending the Air Force Academy and playing football. "The movie Top Gun really inspired me to fly a jet fighter. Football, I love the game alot."

JUNIORS

Sunshine Funderburk is a junior that's "haveing fun." She is the type of person that can make anyone laugh no matter what mood they're in. When Sunshine was asked what the most memorable moment was in her high school years, she said she had more than one. Her first reply was, "In my sophomore year I met the best friend anyone could ever meet, Lisa McInturf. My second most memorable moment was also last year when I took Lisa surfing for the first time. I remember watching her horrified face as she was on her first wave."

Sunshine can usually do anything without getting embarrassed, but there is one thing she did that tops everything. "I was in a wild mood one day and the rapping music in the quad didn't help. I saw "Cool C" dancing and I wanted to go make a fool of myself, just as he was. I grabbed two friends of mine, Jessica and Mindy, and we all started grooving with the "C". People teased us for days, but I had a blast!"

When Sunshine was asked about her future plans, she said "In my future I hope to be successful in the medical field. I'm not sure if I would rather be a psychiatrist, pediatrician, or an occupational therapist. I do know that I want to work with children."

One thing Sunshine wants to say to Soquel is, "I have always been known for my humor and big mouth. I like to make people laugh and be happy, but the one thing I like best is having good friends; they mean the world to me."

Lori Rodgers is a junior with a different look on life. She makes a statement with what she does, wears, and says. Lori is hardly ever serious so when she is, it's really important. When asked about her most memorable moment, she had two. Her first was when a few friends and she went down and bought pies and had a huge pie fight in the smoking section. Her second most memorable time was last year. "I cut for so long that they called my parents up and asked if I dropped out."

When asked about Lori's most embarrassing moment in her high school years, she replied, "I don't get embarrassedl I just try and laugh at everything."

Lori's future plans are to graduate with a 4.0 and go to Harvard to become a brain surgeon. Either that or become an actress.

One thing that Lori would like to tell the school is . . . "I am really a man! No seriously, I really want people to understand that the people in the smoking section aren't really bad people. They're just trying to do the best they can on what they have, just like you."

Accomplished Vaulter

John Alongi is a freshman here at Soquel, but he's not just an ordinary freshman. Out of school he is an award winning vaulter. It all started when he was five years old. "My mom heard about the sport and signed up me and my two sisters, Krista and Anamarie, on a vaulting team," says John.

John has won numerous awards, from ribbons to metals, as an individual and as a team member. This past summer John and four of his teammates; Brett Petersen, Brooke Becker, Bryan Jones, and Simone Lemeurx, who all attend Soquel, flew to Switzerland to compete in a world championship. They placed second overall.

When asked who his idol was, he answered, "My coach, he really motivated me to keep vaulting, and also the vaulters who are more experienced and have placed high in competition."

A Seasoned Cyclist

Derek Jones, a fifteen year old freshman, is an outstanding cyclist, not bicycles but motorcycles (dirt-bikes). He has been competing in bike races since January, 1985.

He started riding because both his brother and his brother-in-law have motorcycles, and it was they who got him interested after his first ride. He was never the same.

In less than a year, Derek has won ten trophies on his CR 80 which he no longer races. He often rides at the Met Calf Cycle Park where the above picture was taken.

When asked who motivated him, he replied, "My brother-in-law had a lot to do with how far I've gotten." But his idol is David Baily, a world class cyclist.

At Met Calf hill, Derek Jones turns to join the straightaway for the victory.

"The clubs aren't always as organized as they should be, but they do benefit the school and the community."

Jennifer Melton

"Clubs can be helpful if you want to get into a good college. I'm not involved because there are not any that I am particularly interested in."

Russ Craig

"I am involved in CSF and ASB. ASB is a little more active, though both are just as unorganized. I enjoy the activities in both."

Kristine Hernendez

"This year I was not in any clubs because I was too busy with drama and band. I think it's good to be involved in clubs. It gives you a chance to meet new people who share the same interest as you."

ZATIONS

Clubs at Soquel High are, and always have been, very active within the school and throughout the community during its twenty-five year history. There are only two clubs, however, that remain from the school's first year. They are the Key Club, now known as Model C.S.F., and the Speech and Debate Club, now known as Model U.N. In its early years, the Speech and Debate Club held debates concerning very important world issues. Though it is not as active as in the past, the Speech and Debate Club (Model U.N.) continues to be a top club here at Soquel.

Although there are twelve fewer clubs now than there were twenty-five years ago, all current clubs hold very distinct responsibilities. They are also very popular among the students. Clubs and organizations have been important for the first twenty-five years at Soquel, and one can bet that they will be just as popular over the next quarter of a century.

CHEERLEADERS

Soquel High's 1986-87 spirit leaders were outstanding. With practice's twice a week, basketball games, homework and making posters, dedication was needed.

This year Soquel High had more spirit than past years thanks to the cheerleaders and the "Soquel Physco's". At first there was conflicts between the Physco's and the spirit leaders, but once they learned to work together, they were unstopable. Each squad had a head cheerleader of their squad, and this job held extra responsible. Jennifer Bettencourt, head of J.V. squad, Richelle Rutherford, head of the Varsity cheerleaders and Danielle Wilkes, head of Pom Pon's, each showed excellent leadership.

In order to reach one outstanding quality of their performances, the spiritleaders went to camp this summer at Stanford University. At camp, they had a very strenuous schedule. They were up at 5:30 every morning, and then off to aerobics at 7:00AM. All day, they learned various cheers and techniques, which helped them in designing cheers for this year. At the end of the day, they performed one cheer they learned in front of the whole camp. In these small competitions, the Pom's did an outstanding job, especially Danielle Wilkes. She was given an opportunity to go to Hawaii during Easter for competition, unfortunately she was unable to go.

They brought life and excitement to sport events, lunch, spirit week and many other times. Without the spiritleaders life on campus might be pretty dull.

LEADERSHIP CLUBS

A.S.B. is the single largest student organization on campus. Their participation represents approximately sixteen hundred students at Soquel. They help arrange activities such as spirit week, homecoming, assemblies, senior trip, dances, proms, and is the "connector" between the students and the school administration. Within ASB, there is an Executive Council; this includes positions of a president of each class; site council members, commissioners, as well as the president, vice president, secretary and treasurer of ASB.

C.S.F. stands for California Scholastic Federation. This organization consists of the top students from grades ten-twelve. There is a high standard criteria consideration to each member who is selected. They are active to community service as well as funding scholarships to seniors going on t college.

Honor society is a large service club, con sisting of high achievers in fields of aca demic and leadership. Lead by Grace Chan (pres.), they have active envolvement i community service as well as volunteer wor for Special Olympics and Easter Seals.

CLUBS ON THE RISE

The French Club is a club with exclusive eatures. The French Club promotes the rench culture and language at Soquel High. t brings a special look to the country and anguage of the French people to us. Some- imes they go out to dinner at French restur- ants. They also help out with the prepara- ion for the annual foreign language week. And once a year they plan a trip to France, but last year they weren't able to because of terrorism.

Big Brothers/ Big Sisters is considered one of the most popular groups at Soquel. The Seniors are encouraged to help the Freshmen. The Seniors help the Freshmen deal with high school life. They also encourage and help with school. Big Brothers/Big Sisters is a most valuable organization.

Young Life is a group of students who sing, scream, but just have fun. This is a youth group who goes on ski trips and attends a youth camp annually. This is a way for students to get rid of their frustrations with peers. "I had a great time this year. The students come to sing, dance, scream, and have a great time", said Mr. Grubaugh (advisor).

AN AWARD WINNING F.F.A.

Through out the school year, the FFA has sponsored many activities. In October, it was a pumpkin carving contest, in November, a firewood fund raiser raffle, December was a canned food drive. February 21-28 was National FFA week, and everyday, the FFA sponsored different activities in the quad. At the end of May, there is an awards banquet for all members and parents.

All of these activities are planned by the chapter officers, President- Rachel Sarazen, Vice President- Cenid Suarez, Secretary- Jackie Lantron, Treasurer- Scott Van Dervoort, Reporter- Chris Lapore, Sentinel- Aymeth Suarez.

FFA members also enter into competitive events as in landscaping contests, forestry contest, ornamental horticulture contests, and floristry contests. All of these contests are held throughout the state, so members usually give away most of their weekends during the contests. The top two people from each contests later move into state finals which are held in San Luis Obisbo. There are four degrees in the FFA: Greenhand, Chapter Farmer, State Farmer, American Farmer.

The Safe Ride organization is extremely helpful community service. The goal of the Safe Ride organization is to keep the drunk drivers off the road. Safe Ride is run by qualified students only. The students pick up fellow students who are unable to drive and bring them home. Safe Ride is recognized by two nationally known groups, which are: M.A.D.D. and S.A.D.D. "I feel that this is a real good idea and I hope that it succeeds with it's goal", said Grace Chang.

Model U.N. is a speech and debate club Every year they travel to Sacramento to participate in a state wide debate. TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO, THE GREEN BAY PACKERS WERE DOMINATING THE FOOTBALL WORLD. IN REGULAR-SEASON-PLAY GREEN BAY WON ITS FIRST TEN GAMES. WINNER OF THE HEISMAN TROPHY THAT YEAR WAS TERRY BAKER, AN OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY QUARTERBACK.

In boxing, Mahamed Ali (then named Classius Clay) was rising to stardom as a boxer. He got his first light heavyweight crown also that year.

The New York Yankees showed their stuff again that year when they won the World Series for the second time in a row. The play-off stretched for thirteen straight days due to foul weather. By October sixteenth, the Yankees captured the seventh game at Candlestick Park, one to zero.

In basketball, the University of Cincinnatii became the first team to win two National Collegiate Athletic Association Championships in a row. Cincinnatii's Paul Hogue was voted most valuable player of the twenty-fourth annual tournament.

KNIGHTS LOOK AHEAD TO NEXT YEAR.

The score: 23-7. A season ending loss to the San Lorenzo Valley Cougars. That final loss summed up the season. The Knights went into the year with high hopes but injuries decimated the team. Six starters were hurt early in the year and never returned. The loss of players such as Joe Hyatt, Hugh Murray, Greg Rhorback, Gorgon Spaulding, David Verduzco and Steve Silver hurt the Knights deeply. With a very tough schedule the Knights struggled through the first four games. After peaking against Aptos in the league opener, the Knight's began to struggle once again. Though finishing near the bottom in their league the Knights were recognized as a team with an abundance of talent and skill. They were lead by seniors Jason Woodall, Roc Pifferini, Will Schwab, James Poli, Wes Borgstedt, and Tom Frankl. Juniors Sean Pitts, Mark Honhorst, Eric Gonthier, and sophomore Adam Caltabiano also contributed greatly. Many of the Knight's were rewarded by being named to the All League and All County teams.

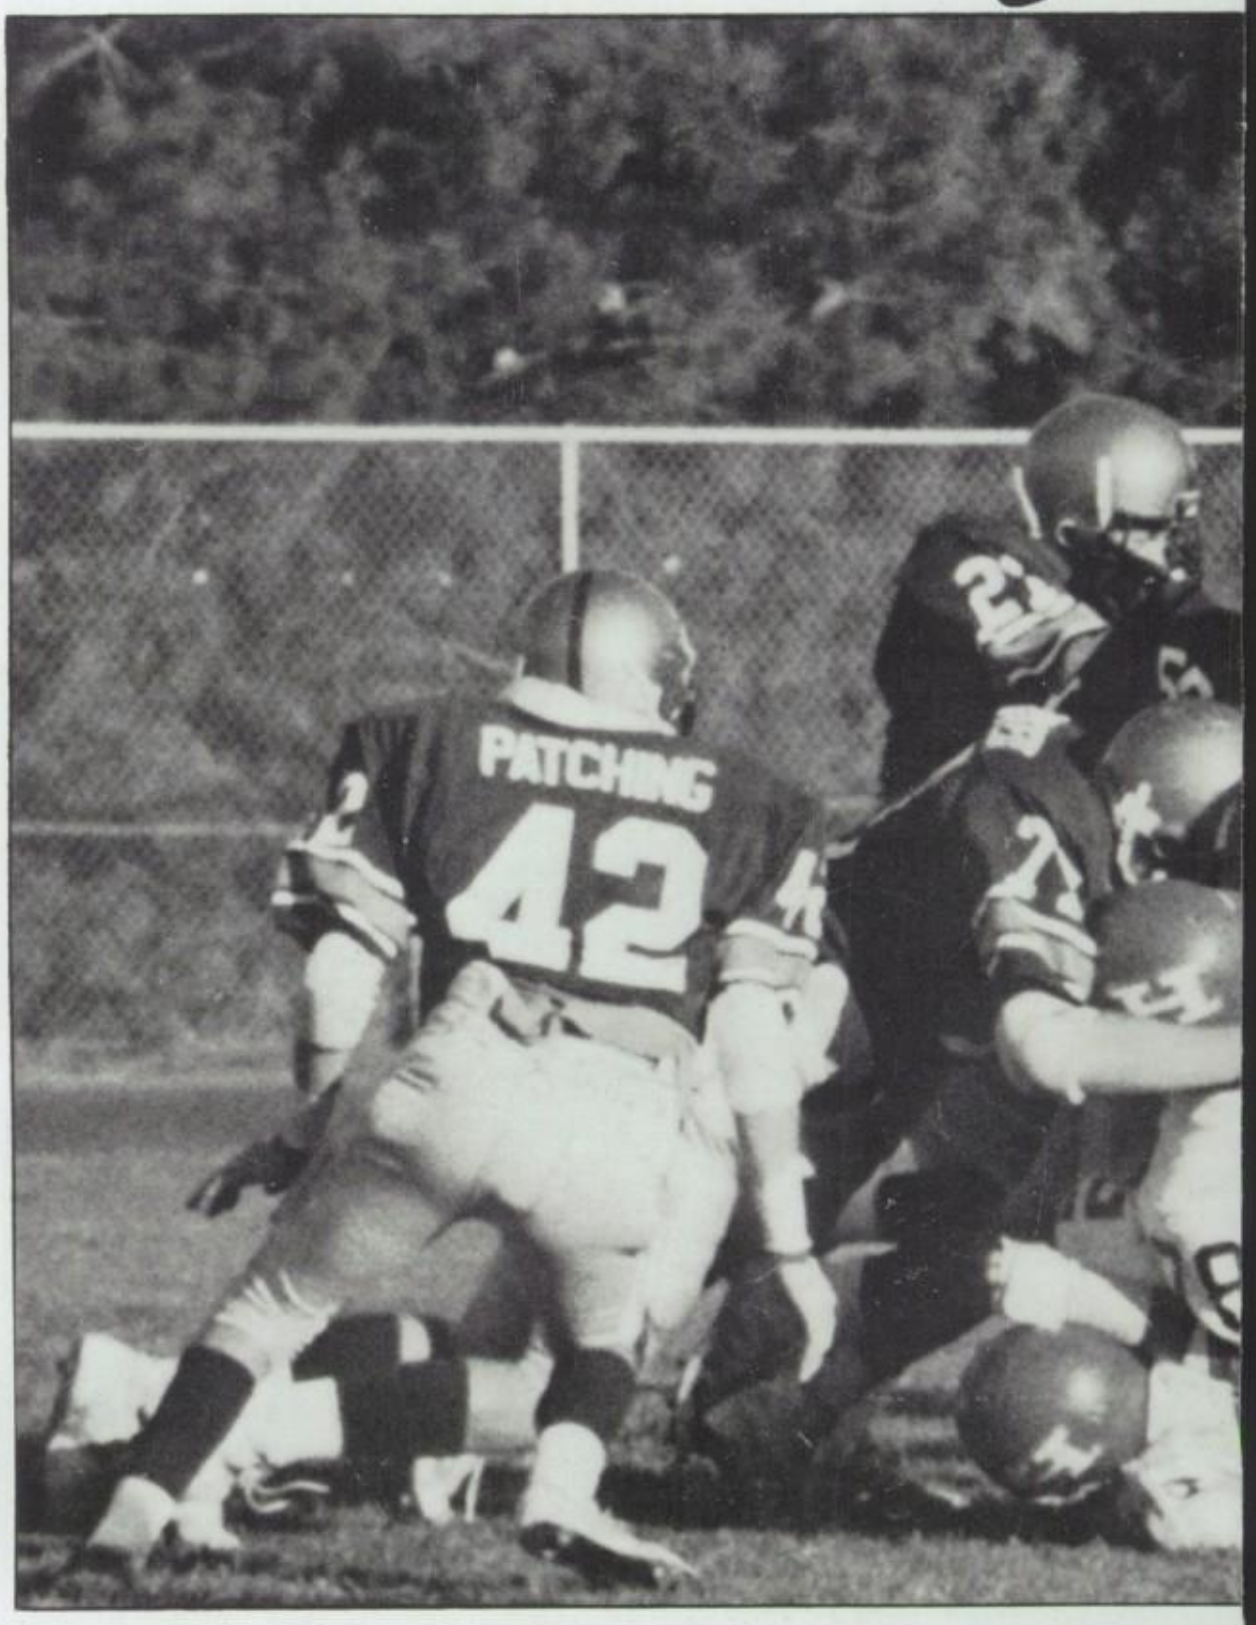
Defense: The Main Strength

Mario Verduzco coordinated the defense for his ninth year at Soquel along with first year coach, Robert Heppe. "I think that the defense was the strong point of our team this year," Verduzco said. And rightfully so for the Knight's defense landed five players on the All-County team: James Poli and Wes Borgstedt at defensive ends, Scott Belknap at outside linebacker, Matt Lasher as kicker, and free safety David Verduzco.

Poli and Borgstedt led the "D-line" while Hugh Murray and company headed the linebackers. With the "Secretary of Defense" David Verduzco and cornerback Tom Frankl, the secondary was also well rounded.



Greg Rohrback and a host of other Knights bring down a Pirate carrier. The Knights won their Homecoming game in overtime.

"Football has a great team aspect to it! I'll never forget my teammates and the fun we had on the field."

STRENGTH + TALENT + CONSISTENCY = SUCCESS

The Junior Varsity football team proved to be number one and a little bit more this year. Compiling an almost perfect record, the J.V.'s had some impressive iompressive victories over good football teams such as Piedmont Hills, Monterey, and Live Oak.

Consistency was a mainstay for the dominating J.V.'s. They played solid football on both offense and defense. Tim Norman played an important role on their field as the Knights' quarterback. "You can always count on Tim to make something happen." stated one spectator, supported by the confirming glances in the bleachers. Steve Hubbard, a tight end proved to be very valuable and a favorite target of Norman's passes. Down near the end-zone, where the Knights spent a lot of time, you could almost always count on a little roll out pass from Norman to Hubbard.

Let's not forget the line, the unsung heroes of the game. These are the guys who protect the quarterback and open holes for the runners. It seems they never get the interviews or the ball, things they both want very badly, but they always hold back their feelings and do the job.

Coach's Fishburn and Severin enjoyed another year of successful coaching and seemed confident of their team all year long. Great year guys congratulations

GREAT START FOR FROSH

Assisted by high expectations, some overachieving players, veteran freshman coach Mitch Meyer and two exciting assistants in Russ Miller and Brent Peirce, the freshman team compiled a 6-3 record. The first winning record posted by a freshman team in over four years. The key to their success seemed to be good players at the skill positions (quarterback, receiver, running back,) and an excellent job by both offensive and defensive lines. Some key players on the team were Brian Clark and Brett Maas, just to name two, in a great team effort.

This concludes Mitch Meyer's third year as the freshman coach and it turned out to be a very successful one. Good job Mr. Meyer, your time and devotion are appreciated. Such a successful freshman team should provide some exceptional Soquel teams to come.

Challenging Year For Knight's Varsity

Last year Coach Mitch Meyer celebrated perhaps his best year at Soquel High. He won his 100th game, won league 11-3, coach of the year, and advanced to the Central Coast Section playoffs for his fifth straight year as Varsity coach. He has built a reputation for winning in this league.

This year may be more of a challenge for Meyer. With All-State pitcher David Verduzco sidelined for possibly the whole season with a knee injury, Meyer returns only ONE '86 starter. Roc Pifferini will take the leaders spot at first base and at the plate. Other players with Varsity experience include Mike Bacon, Andy Akioshi, Bill Hawkins, and Brian Ifland. This year's team is loaded with freshman and sophomores as well.

"Playing on a team as young as this year's is, it seems to pull all the guys together as a team." Roc Pifferini

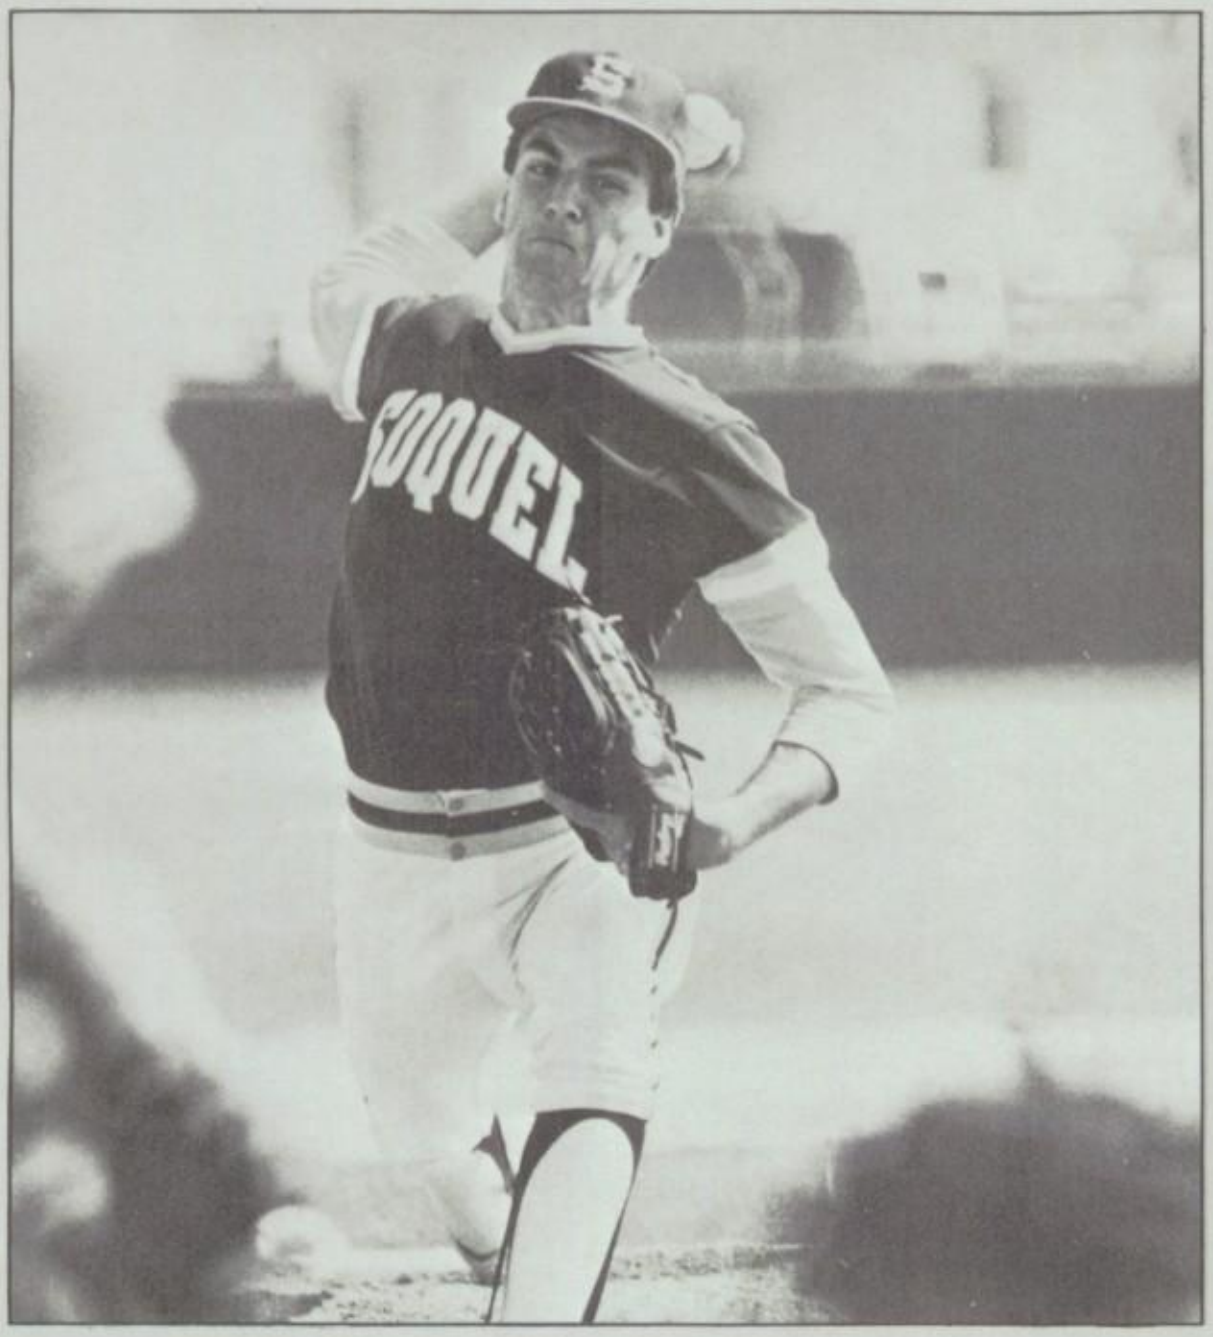
ALL IN ONLY THREE YEARS

Verduzco filled the roll of a relief pitcher his freshman year on the Varsity team. He finished with a 4-1 record, 6 saves, and a 0.17 ERA in 42 innings. He was named C.C.S. freshman of the year and made All-County and All-League.

In his sophomore year, number nine posted an 8-4 record, a 1.57 ERA, and 100 strikeouts. He was named MVP pitcher in the S.C.C.A.L. and All-County and All-League. He also made the 2nd team All-C.C.S.

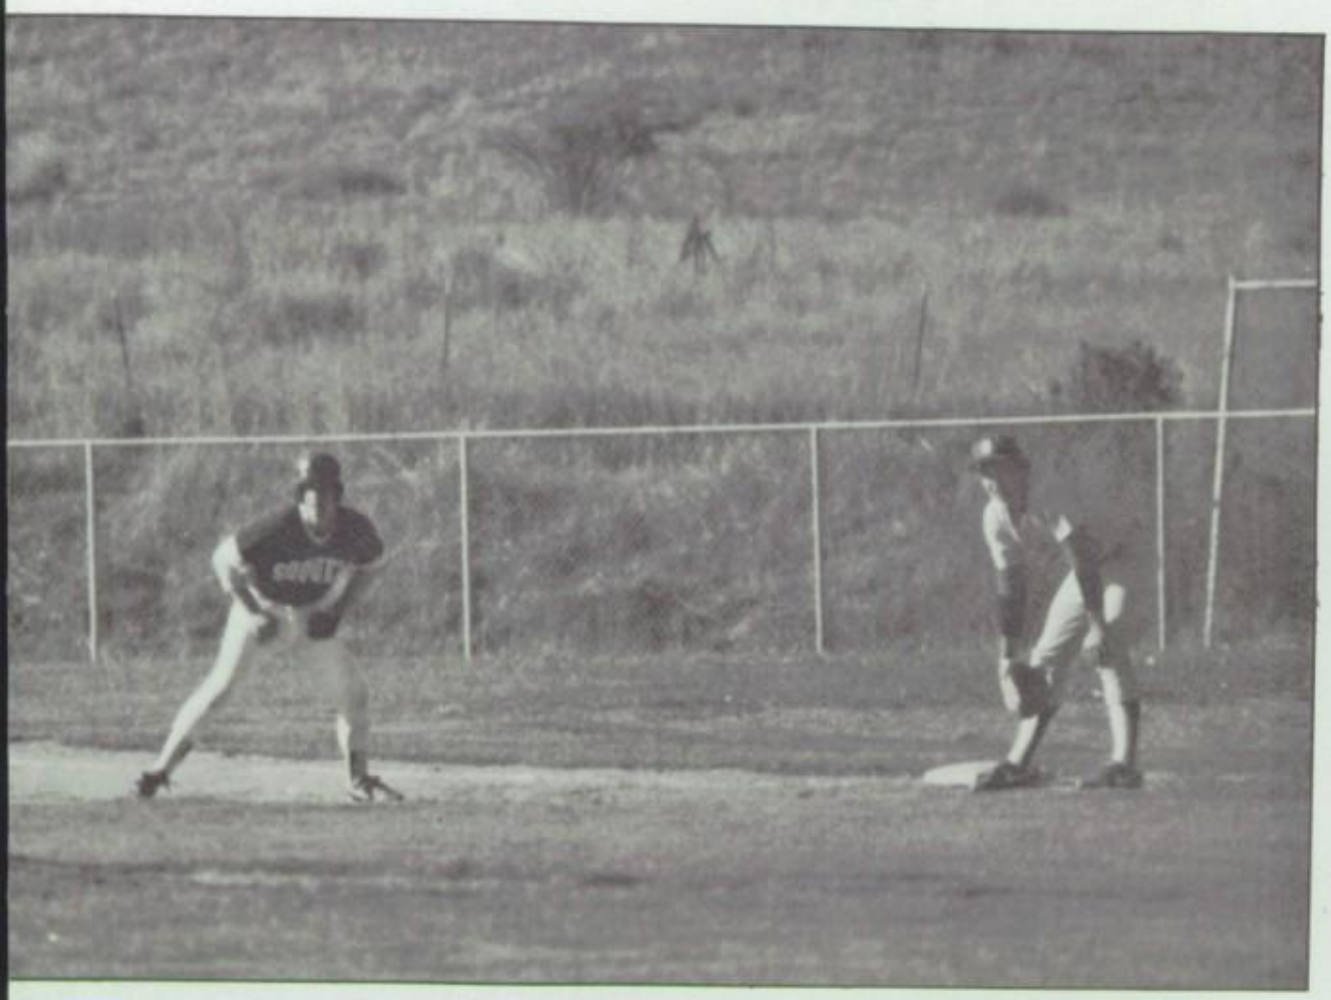
Verduzco really shined his Junior year. He carried his team to the C.C.S. playoffs for the third straight year and finished with a 12-1 record, 1.03 ERA, and 118 strikeouts. For the third straight year he made All-County and All-League, MVP pitcher again, MVP player, C.C.S. junior of the year, All-C.C.S. first team, All-NorCal, and incredibly All-State! Verduzco received a full ride scholarship to Cal Berkeley and Stanford University. Although Verduzco will probably miss this season due to a knee injury, he achieved in only 3 years what most players never accomplish.

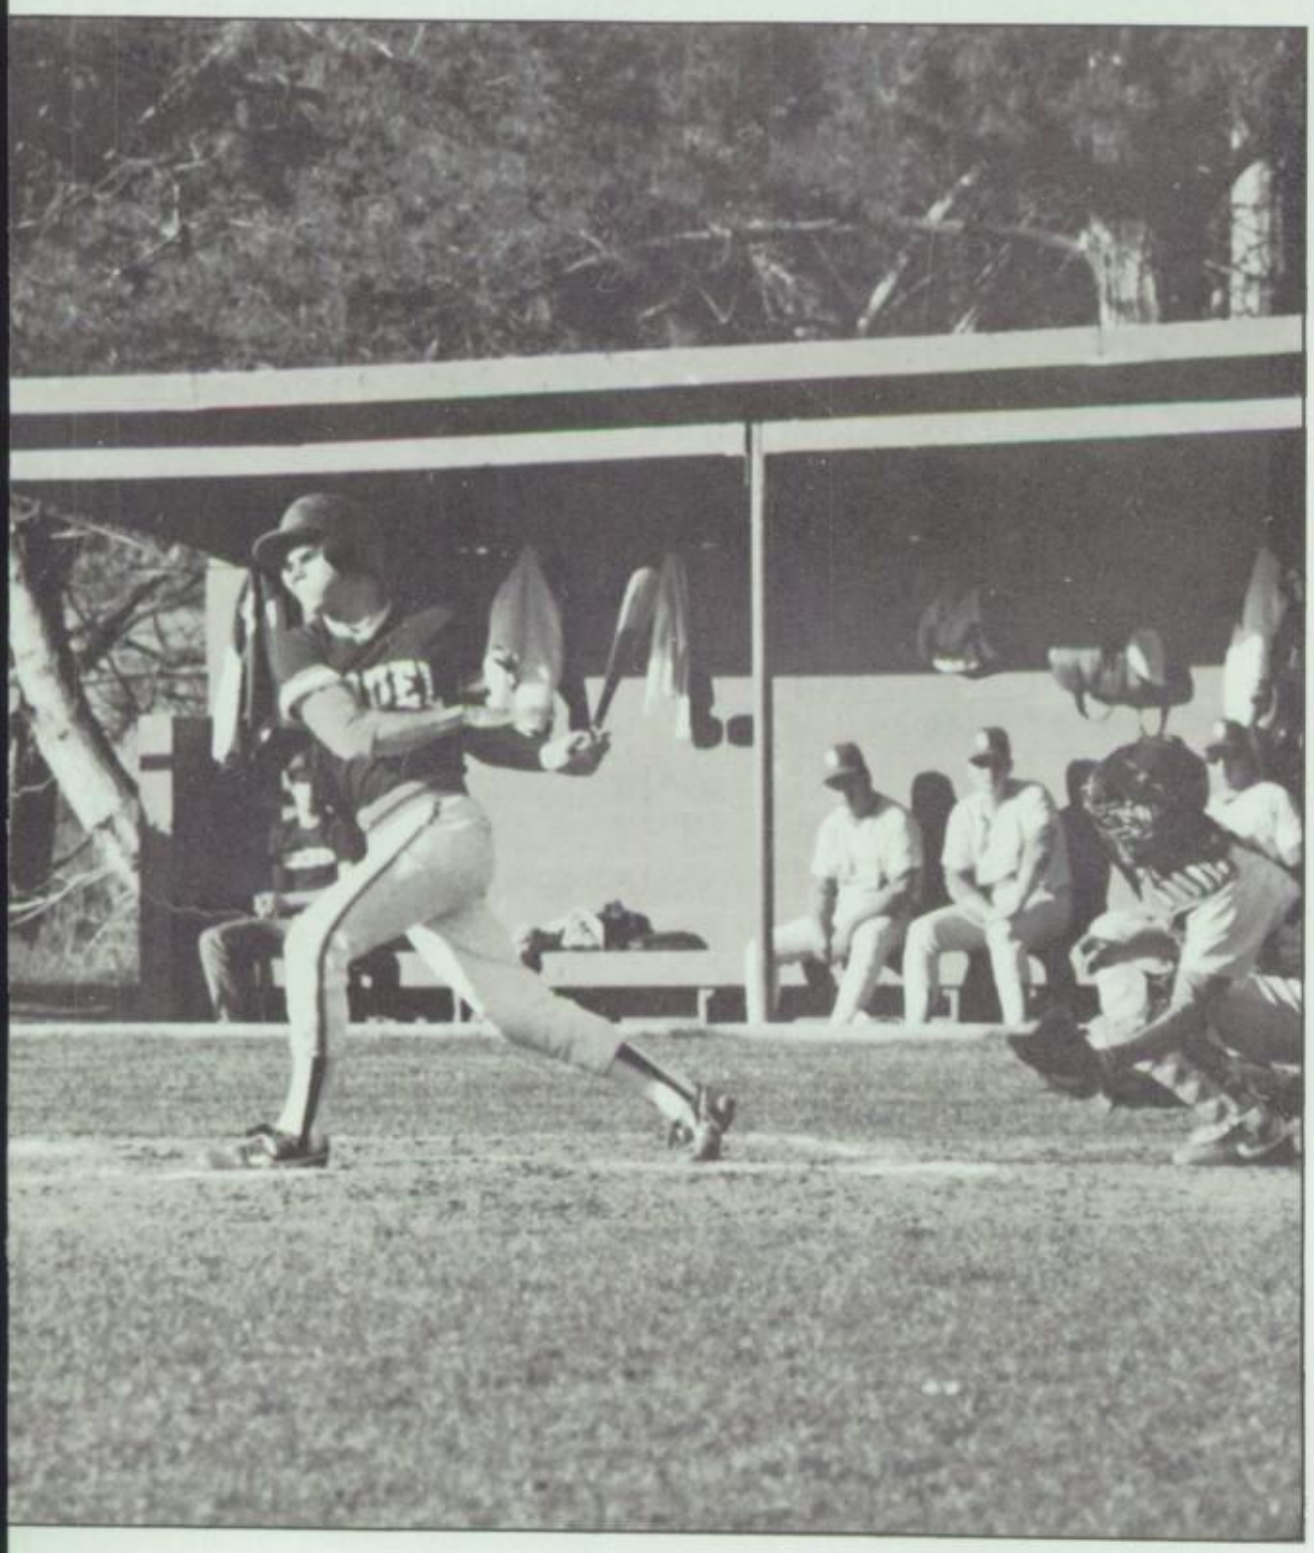


"I'd just like to thank my Dad for teaching me the important things about pitching and my Mom for always being there with positive encouragement!" - David Verduzco #9

In his sophomore year, Verduzco compiled an 8-4 record and was named to the All-League and All-County teams.

Always striving for excellence, Verduzco was named to the pre-season All-State baseball team this year.





Brian Ifland (left) takes a lead in his second Carsity season. He starts at third base. Jasen Seeger (below) takes a cut. He is a strong rookie this year.

Junior, Paul Pappas (left) starts at short stop and does a fine job at the plate as well.

J.V. blasts to top

Under first year coaches Richard Castillo and Ken Nakadowa the Knight's J.V. baseball team had an excellent baseball season. All the players were very talented and played well executed baseball. They undoubtedly had the best infield in the league as well as a strong outfield. The pitching staff consisted soley of freshmen, all of whom were very talented. Keep up the great work guys!

VARSITY SLAMS IT HOME.

Since there were so many returning varsity softball players, this year's team may be the strongest Soquel has seen in a while. With players like RaeAnn Pifferini, Becki Wattenbarger, and Tamara Hadreas, these seasoned players' positions were theirs for the asking. Headed by coach Matt Comarlingi, the team has a great chance at succeeding. The senior players will be missed, but the younger players will be an asset to next year's team.

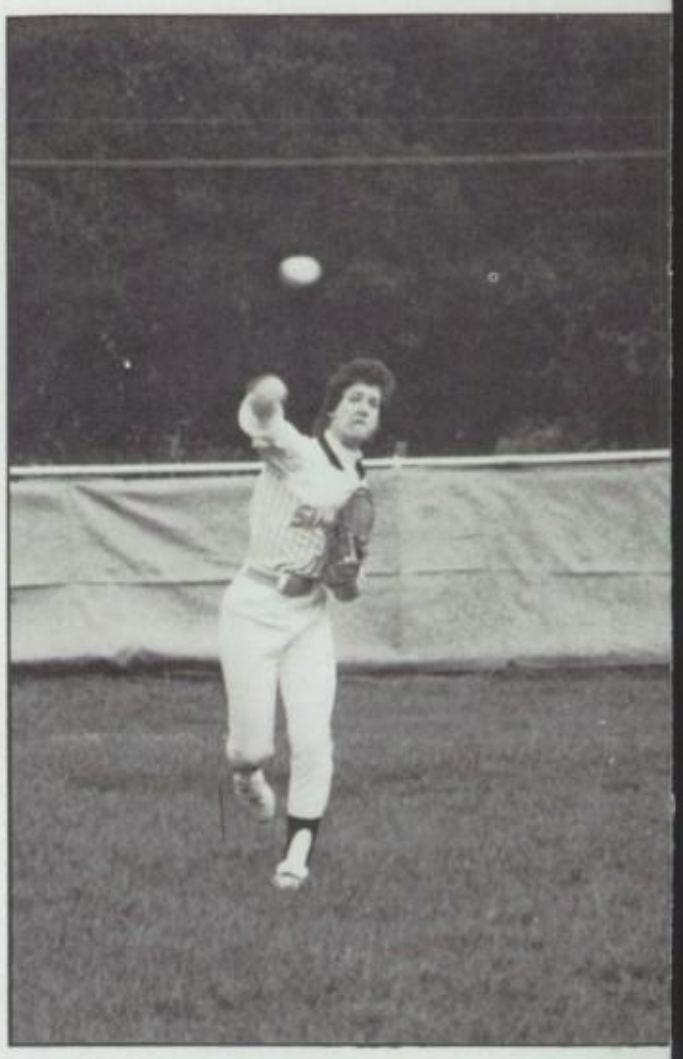
Long hours of batting practice certainly paid off for fine hitters such as Rea Anne Pifferini.



We had a really good season, and had a lot of fun. Making this year so successful was the teamwork we had and also including the five players that have played together since our freshmen year. I will definitely miss it. -Jonnell Yantis

Throughout the season the outfield skills of these girls (left) remain consistent and valuable. The victories couldn't have been possible, however, without fine batting demonstrated above.

JV SOFTBALL

With many returning players this season, this year's J.V. softball team is one of the best teams Soquel High has ever had. Their defense is outstanding, and their offense only seems to get better. Their power at the plate accounts for many of their high scoring games, and their defense, led by pitcher Wendy Kinnan, seems to keep the runs low for the other side.

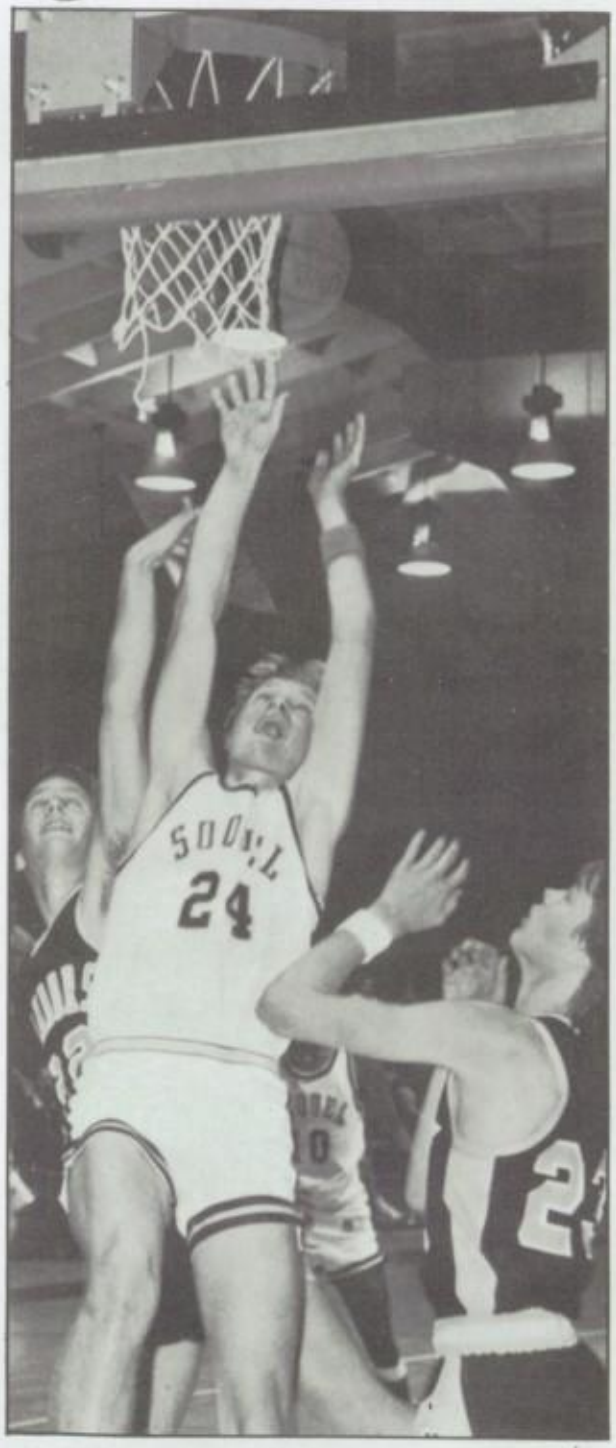
Rebounding Their Way Into

"I had a great time playing basketball this year. All of the students body support we got was really exciting. I'm really looking forward to next year."
Tomas Thompson

If you follow basketball, you know that Soquel's Varsity Basketball Team is one of the best that this school has seen in a few years. Never has there been so much talent on one team. It had sharpshooters, rebounders, and great defensive players. Sophomore, Tim Norman, is a young, upcoming star who has good ballhandling skills and is an excellent shooter. Also a sophomore, Casey Schirmer, who has great defensive skills, will be an asset to the team in the years to come. Thomas Thompson, a junior, and Bobby Southworth, a senior, were outstanding outside shooters for the team and had tremendous knowledge of what was happening around them. One person you can always count on being around the ball is Justin Rhea, who was very strong in penetrating the inside and retrieving the rebound.



Thomas Thompson penetrates inside for this easy two pointer. The Varsity Basketball Team: top row- Coach Dave Spencer, M. Cornell, T. Thompson, D. Emigh, K. House, B. Southworth, C. Schirmer. Bottom row- R. Leeman, J. Alzina, R. Willima, B. Ifland, S. St.Clair.

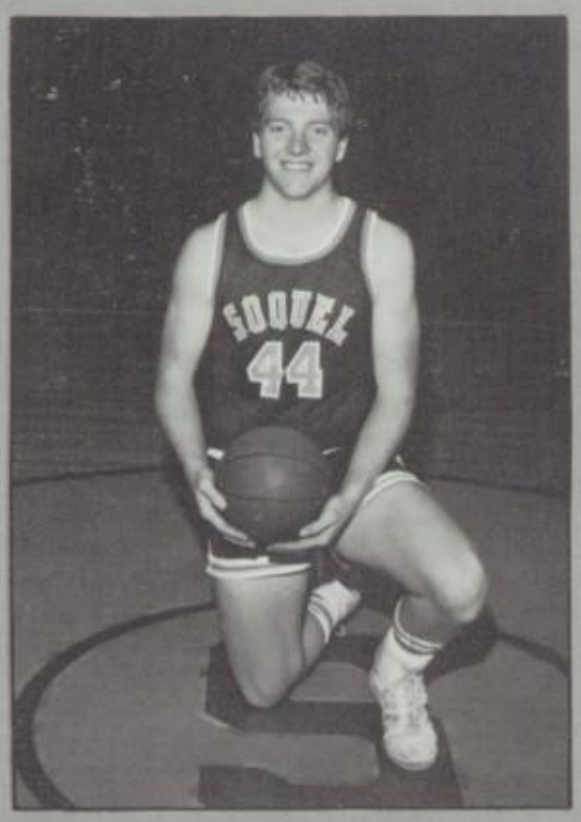
Team Of The Future

The Varsity Basketball team was feared around the league this year because they had the potential to beat any team. The games that they lost, were won by no more than five points; there was never a dull moment. Head Coach Dave Spencer led his team into the CCS Playoffs, where they were knocked off by Santa Cruz in the first play-off game by a mere five points. Next year's team should prove to be strong, since four starting players will be coming back. Many more than capable players like Sean St. Clair, Kenny Hease and Marc Cornell will also be returning. Congradulations on an outstanding season!

Justin Rhea, right, isn't letting this player take a shot.



"I really enjoy basketball because of the physical activity. They used me for banging and crashing the boards. I'm looking forward to next year for more banging."

The Junior Varsity Boys' Basketball Team was very strong and a big threat to all teams in the league. Although they didn't finish first, they were among the top teams and only one game away from first place. They lost two of their outstanding players, but with help from Steve Vasconcelos, Ty Stenton, and Jason Seeger, they had many victories, including a two point, last minute win over Harbor. Off To Playoffs Again

It was playoff bound for the Girls' Varsity BasketBall team they had a great team and "If given a chance to play those teams they had lost to again," Coach Walters said, "they probably would have won." With quite a few returning seniors and juniors from the last few years, team work was a key factor for them. Practices began in the middle of November for the Knights, they were long and hard. Stu Walters had been coaching the last four years and brought them to the playoffs each year. At the end of the season, the seniors were sad it was over but pleased on how it turned out.

Varsity Kicks It Up

Anchored by the stubborn defense of Randy Starbird, Jeff McNeil, Mike Ruger and goalie Bob Criscola, Soquel displayed an aray of talent in a successful season.

A high powered offense led by junior Justin Copely, Paul Marshall and Noel Eidsmore was an important factor in Soquel attack. "The fowards breakaway speed was always a potential threat to our opponents" -Cesar Guzman. The offense was also helped by the play of midfielders Ashley Edgar and sophomore Cesar Guzman.

This threatening offense and stubborn defense are hoping to lead Soquel to their first C.C.S playoff berth in several years. "The new uniforms made the difference "stated Paul Marshall jokingly. Soquel worked better as a team than ever before. A confident and stylish Soquel showed it can really make the difference.

Coached by Melanie Miller, the team improved greatly since last year. This was only the second year that there has been a girls team and they did outstanding. Varsity Hits Their Way Into C.C.S.

The Girls' Varsity Volleyball team had a great season this year, but felt they could have done better. Coach Jana Laster stated, "Talent wise, this is the best team I've ever coached." The Knights placed second in league and went to C.C.S.

Having the height and the power as well as a strong back row, Soquel was able to dominate over their opponents. When they were on, there was no stopping them. The team felt that they worked well together and had a lot of fun doing it. This year was filled with many ups and downs and although they didn't accomplish everything they had hoped for or were expected to do, the team had a successful season. The seniors were sad to see the season end, while the junior looked forward with excitement to the next year.

J.V. SETS THE TABLE FOR A FIRST PLACE SEAT.

This year's Junior Varsity Girls Volleyball team worked long and hard and it payed off. They placed first in the league, winning every game but one. Mark Brewer, the coach, prided his girls on their determination and willingness to improve. "This J.V. team is the best J.V. I've seen in ten years of playing in the S.C.C.A.L. and M.B.L. area. I would match this team against most of the varsity teams in the league."

This years team was led by sophomore Audra Slinkey, who recieved the Most Valuable Player award, for her leadership on the court. The Sportsmanship award went to freshman Lisa Manning. Their sportive actions and encouraging attitudes combined to make a winning season. It was a very succesful effort on the part of the team as a whole.

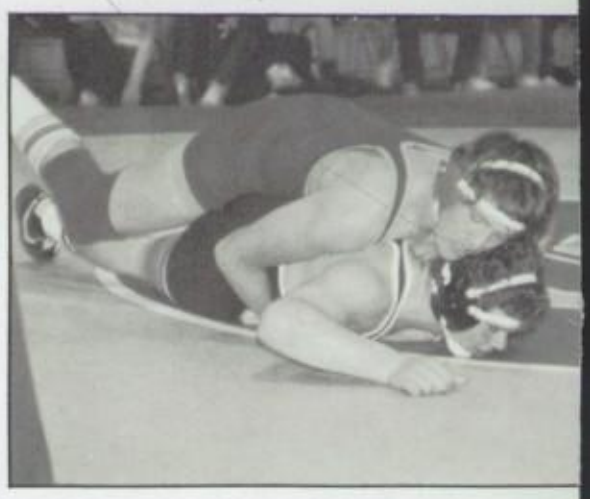
Varsity Continues To Dominate

Even with eight freshman and sophomores on Varsity this year turned out to be one of the best ever! Watch out next year.

- Don Fishburn Varsity Coach



Although hopes for a third consecutive SCCAL championship were not fulfilled it was a successful season for the Knight wrestlers. Of the thirteen varsity positions four were filled by freshmen and another four by sophomores. In spite of being one of the youngest teams in Soquel history this year's squad finished a very close second to North Monterey County in SCCAL competition.

At the league finals ten Knights qualified for state. Sophomore Aron Carman and junior Eric Schwartz both placed fourth. Senior Jim Feeney took second place at CCS and went on to place fifth at the state finals.

With so many young wrestlers on the varsity this year the JV team relied almost totally on novice wrestlers. In spite of this the JVs also finished second in league.

Sophomore Ted Shank provided the only experience on the team and along with first year wrestlers Conan Gasparotti and Derek Jones will form the backbone of future varsity teams.

Knights Swing Into Action

Soquel High's tennis team has been plagued in the past by poor turnouts and a lack of quality players to build a formidable team. There were always a few players that had spent the long hard hours of practice it required to be a good player but never very many. This year things were different, many players showed their worth and determination by improving their attitudes, mental preparation and all around tennis games. Some of the players to lead this onslaught of hard work were Matt Miller, Kevin Dueck, and Chris Sullivan showed their determination by spending a week at intensive training camp during the summer. Senior Todd Peters, David VanNess and Chris Walters also improved immensely. Under the senior leadership of Matt Miller and coach Andy Lachman, the Knights look forward to one of the best seasons ever at Soquel. A strong show by the J.V.'s should ensure quality teams at Soquel to come.

GIRLS JUST WANT

No one was sure what the outcome of this tennis season would be. Many fine players were no longer with the team yet many new players had taken their places. To everyone's pleasure, this year's girls' tennis team was very successful. Returning players such as Juliet Fisher, Becky Wattenburger, Tamera Hadreas, and Cindy Gentles played many strong singles matches. Rookie players like Grace Chang, Jennifer Martin, Laura Pederson, and Paris Trudeau, among others, aided in the doubles matches which were usually victorious. Although they were not an incredibly disciplined team, the girls worked together well and learned from each other. Grace Chang, as new member of the team, was very pleased with the season. "We all had a good time and didn't feel pressured to win our matches. We did it for the team and for ourselves."

Soquel Takes the High Road

Hard work and excellence has made our girls and boys cross country team one of the best in the county. The girls took 2nd in S.C.C.A.L. and 3rd in CCS Region IV, which qualified them for CCS championships. The girls team was disappointed by not winning league this year. Most of the team was made up of juniors, so maybe next year they will have a better chance. Some of the standout runners on the girls team were Tabby Kraft, Cristi McCutcheon, and Briana Keen.

The boys team had a very disappointing year due to injury, although there were many standout runners. Peter Wallace, Shawn Hoffman, Frank Mowry, and Jim Clarke were a few of them. Jim Clarke took 2nd in S.C.C.A.L. and 6th in Region IV. Coach Mark Mc Connell said the team had a lot of potential but their injuries brought them down.

Knight's Sprint For Success

The Soquel track team expected a good season. Last year's squad produced several all state performers and most returned for another year. Leadership from the boy's team came from stars such as Wes Borgstedt, Mike Elliot, Randy Starbird, and Mike DeDiego. These talented athletics propelled the Knight's to the top of the C.C.S. standings.

As for the girls, they too had a strong squad with seniors Cristi McCutcheon, Tabby Kraft and Mercedes Blair to lead the way. The one factor that created some difficulty for the Knight's was the lack of depth on both squads. The abundance of talent, however, compensated for this and carried the Knights to the league championship.

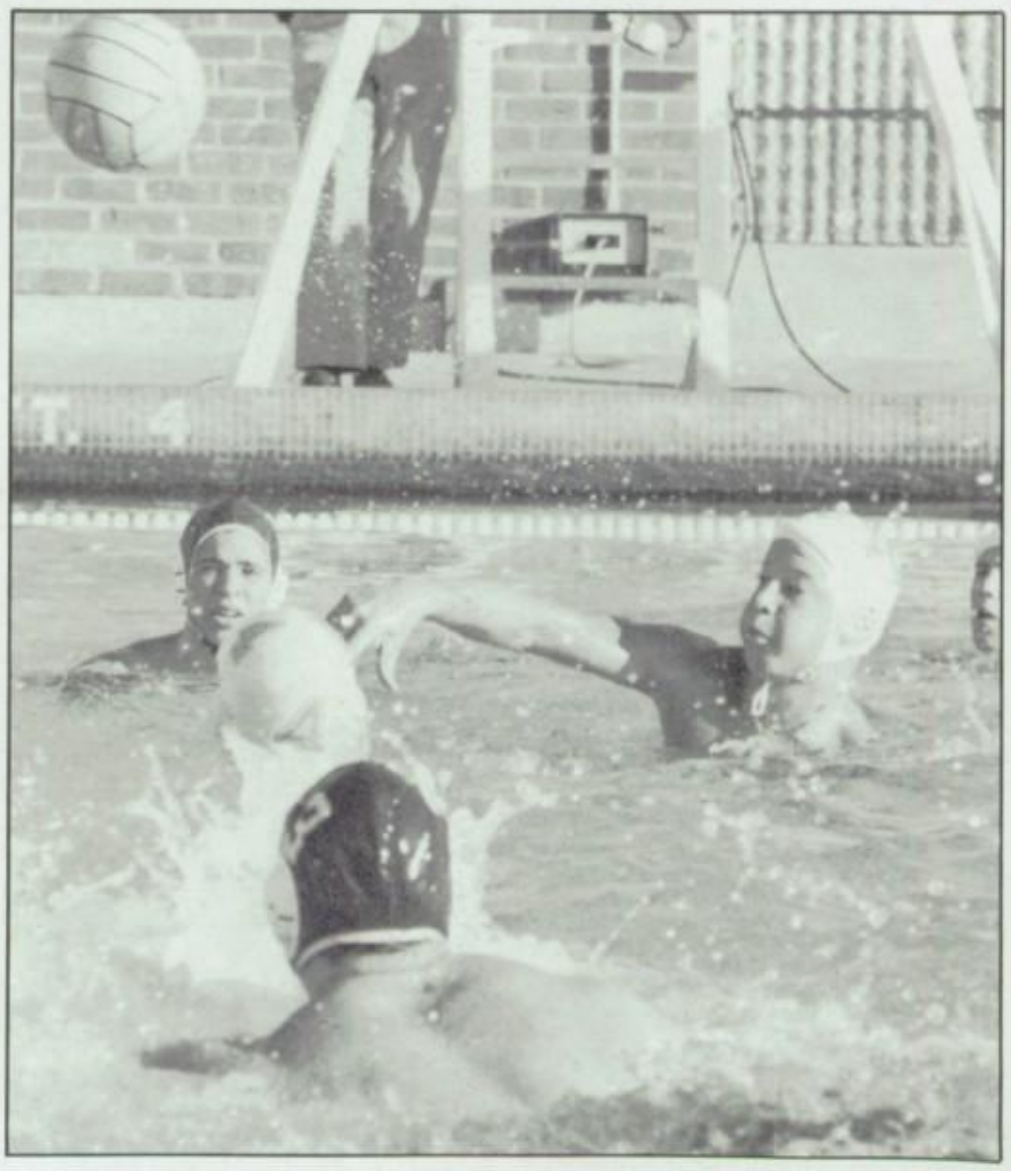
POLOISTS PROVE POWER-FUL! PLACE SECOND IN S.C.C.A.L. AND GO TO C.C.S.



The Varsity Waterpolo team this year was one of the best ever. After losing only to Harbor and Watsonville. Soquel came in second in the league. Also, this fine team went to CCS. With players such as Doug Sanders and Mark Olsen, who made All League honorable mentions, Scott Martell as All League second team, and Sam Radesky as All League first team, an outstanding team was inevitable. Although they did not spend all their time practicing, the long hours they did spend in the pool really did pay off. This winning team will be losing some powerful players, but there is strength left for a fantastic season next year. Scott Martell, Sam Radetsky, Garry Broce, and Mark Olsen are four players that can make it work in the future.

H 2O Polo Takes Second

The JV Waterpolo team had a great season this year. They came in second in the league with an impressive record of 5 and 3, losing only to Harbor and splitting with Santa Cruz. Never before has Soquel had an exceptional JV team and next year many of the players will go on to form a greater varsity team.

With outstanding players such as Steve Thommpson, the top scorer of the team, and Bret Albright, the goalie, the team was almost flawless. The team's coach, Karl Grubaugh, who is also a social studies teacher here at Soquel, is looking forward to another exciting season. With a season like this one, both Coach Grubaugh and the players have a lot to be proud of. Way to go poloists!!!!

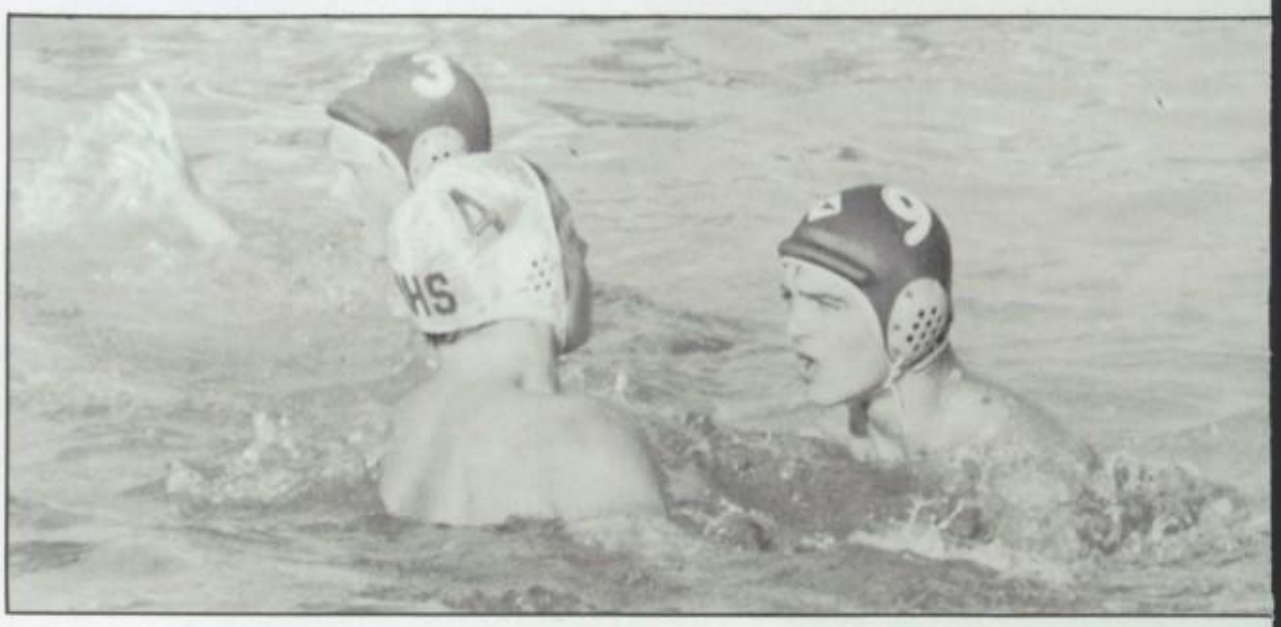
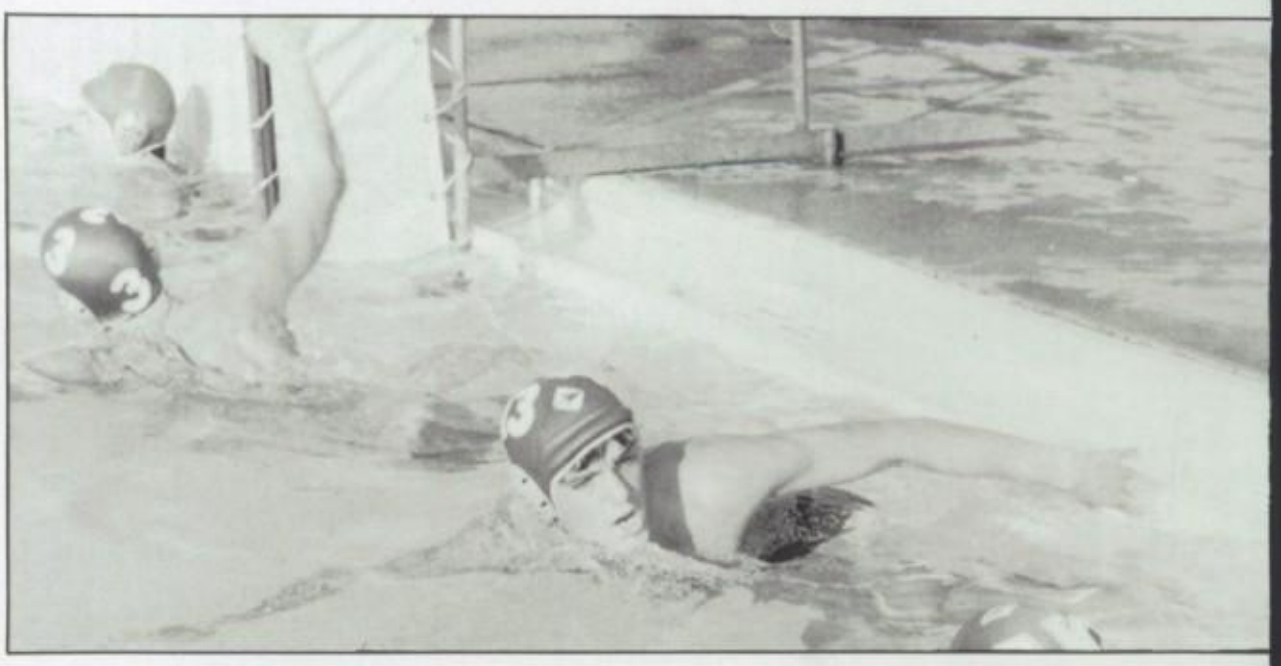
Fronting the holeman with extreme intensity, Marc Dexel plans to win it all for the team.

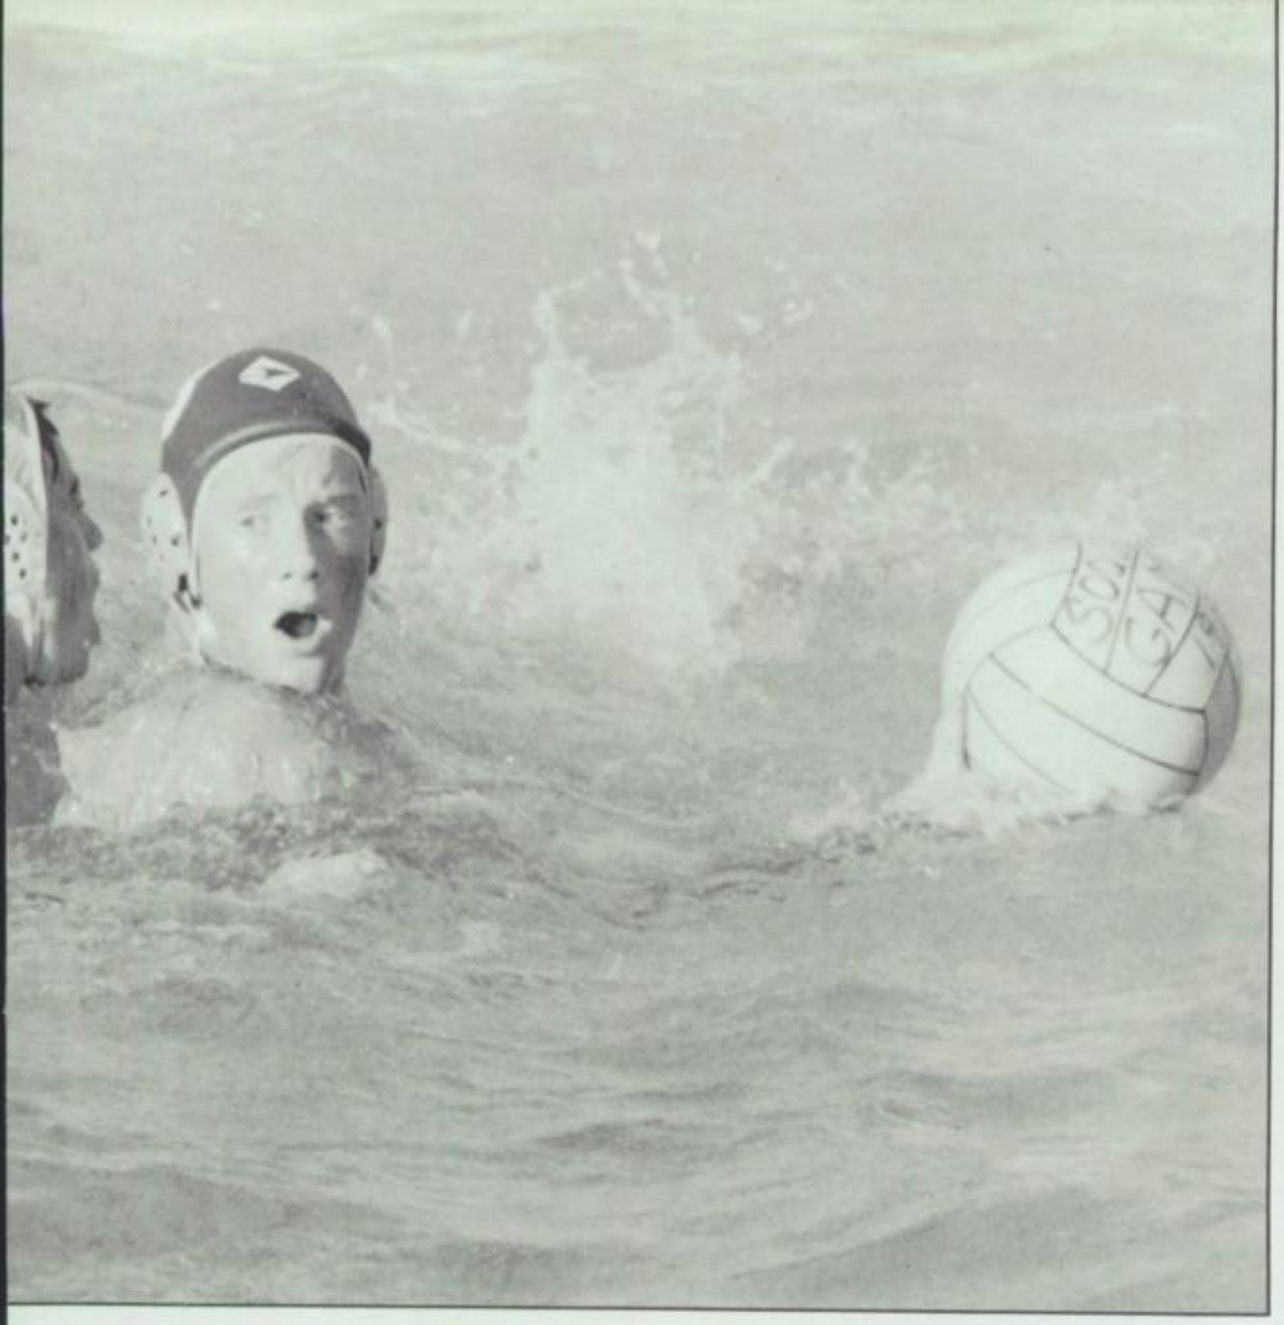
"We had a killer season; the players all had a lot of fun even though the practices were serious and we really worked hard. I am looking forward to the next season when I'll be on the varsity team."

- Matt Hein

At the sound of the whistle Bodhi Raymond takes off for the start of the game.







"Come on guys . . . I need some assistance on this attempt to run a good offense or else Grubaugh will scream," pleaded Steve Thompson.

"Swing the ball around and shoot!" says Coach Grubaugh as he tests his authority from his command post.

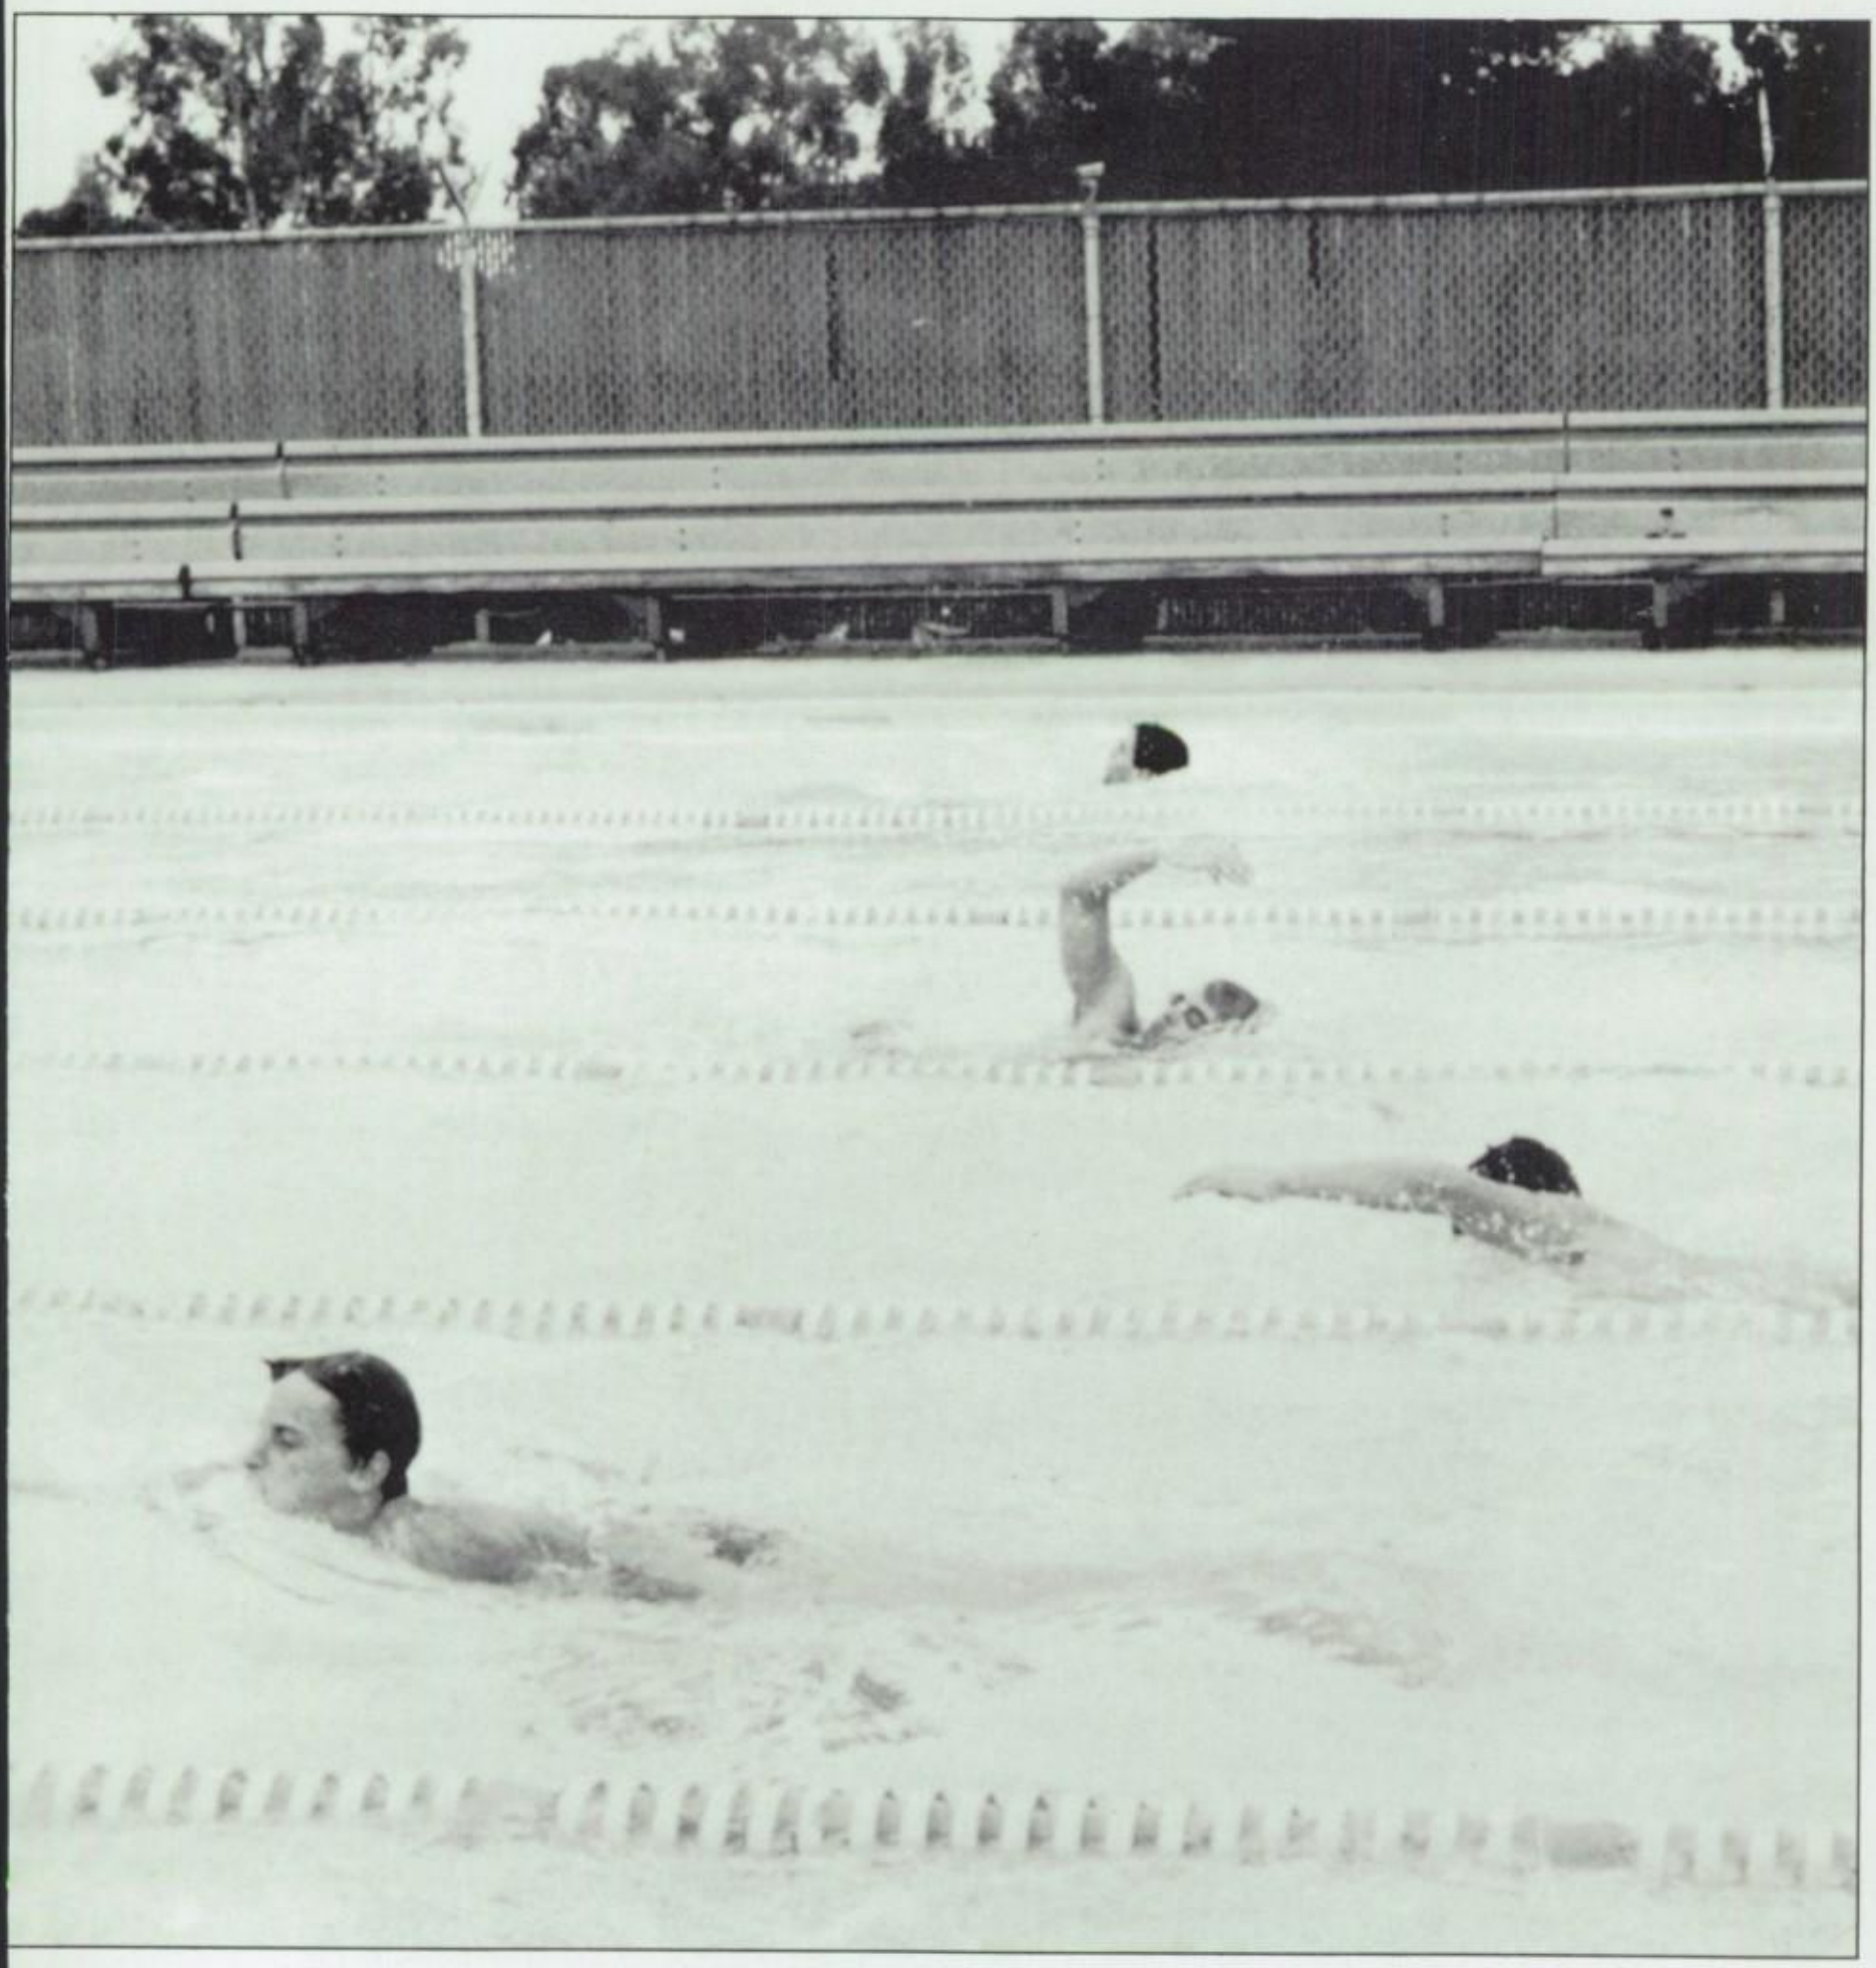
Varsity Takes A Rest

The Varsity Boys' Swim Team had a few more swimmers than the Junior Varsity, but the Varsity Team came off to a much rockier start. With an 0-2 record, the swimmers weren't too happy, but with a determined and hard working coach like Karl Grubaugh, the swimmers hopefully reached their goal.

The Varsity team was lead by Brett Hite, Sam Radetsky, Jeremy Reefe, and Chris Cottle. Without two strong and courageous swimmers such as Randy Boysen and Doug Sanders this year, we weren't sure of the outcome. But we wished the whole team a great season and the best of luck to all of them!

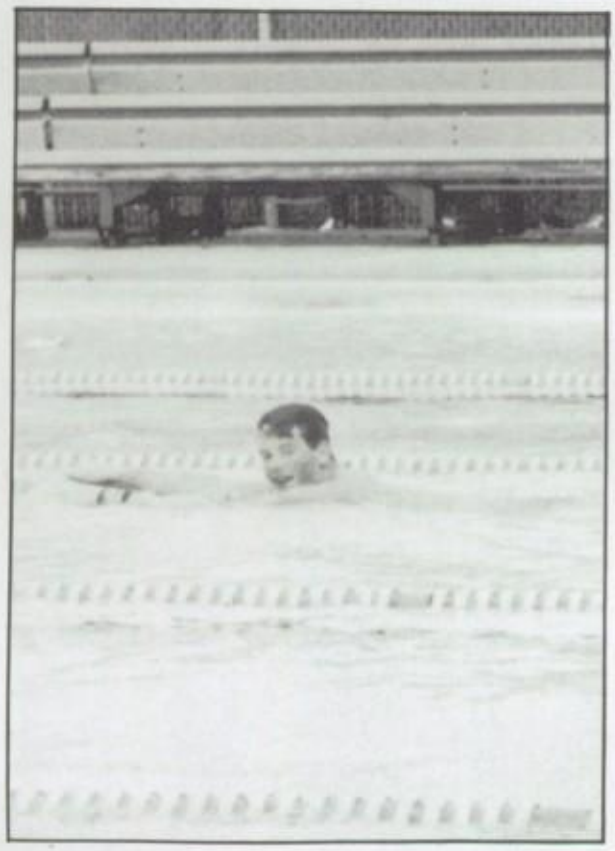
One thousand more laps to go guys!



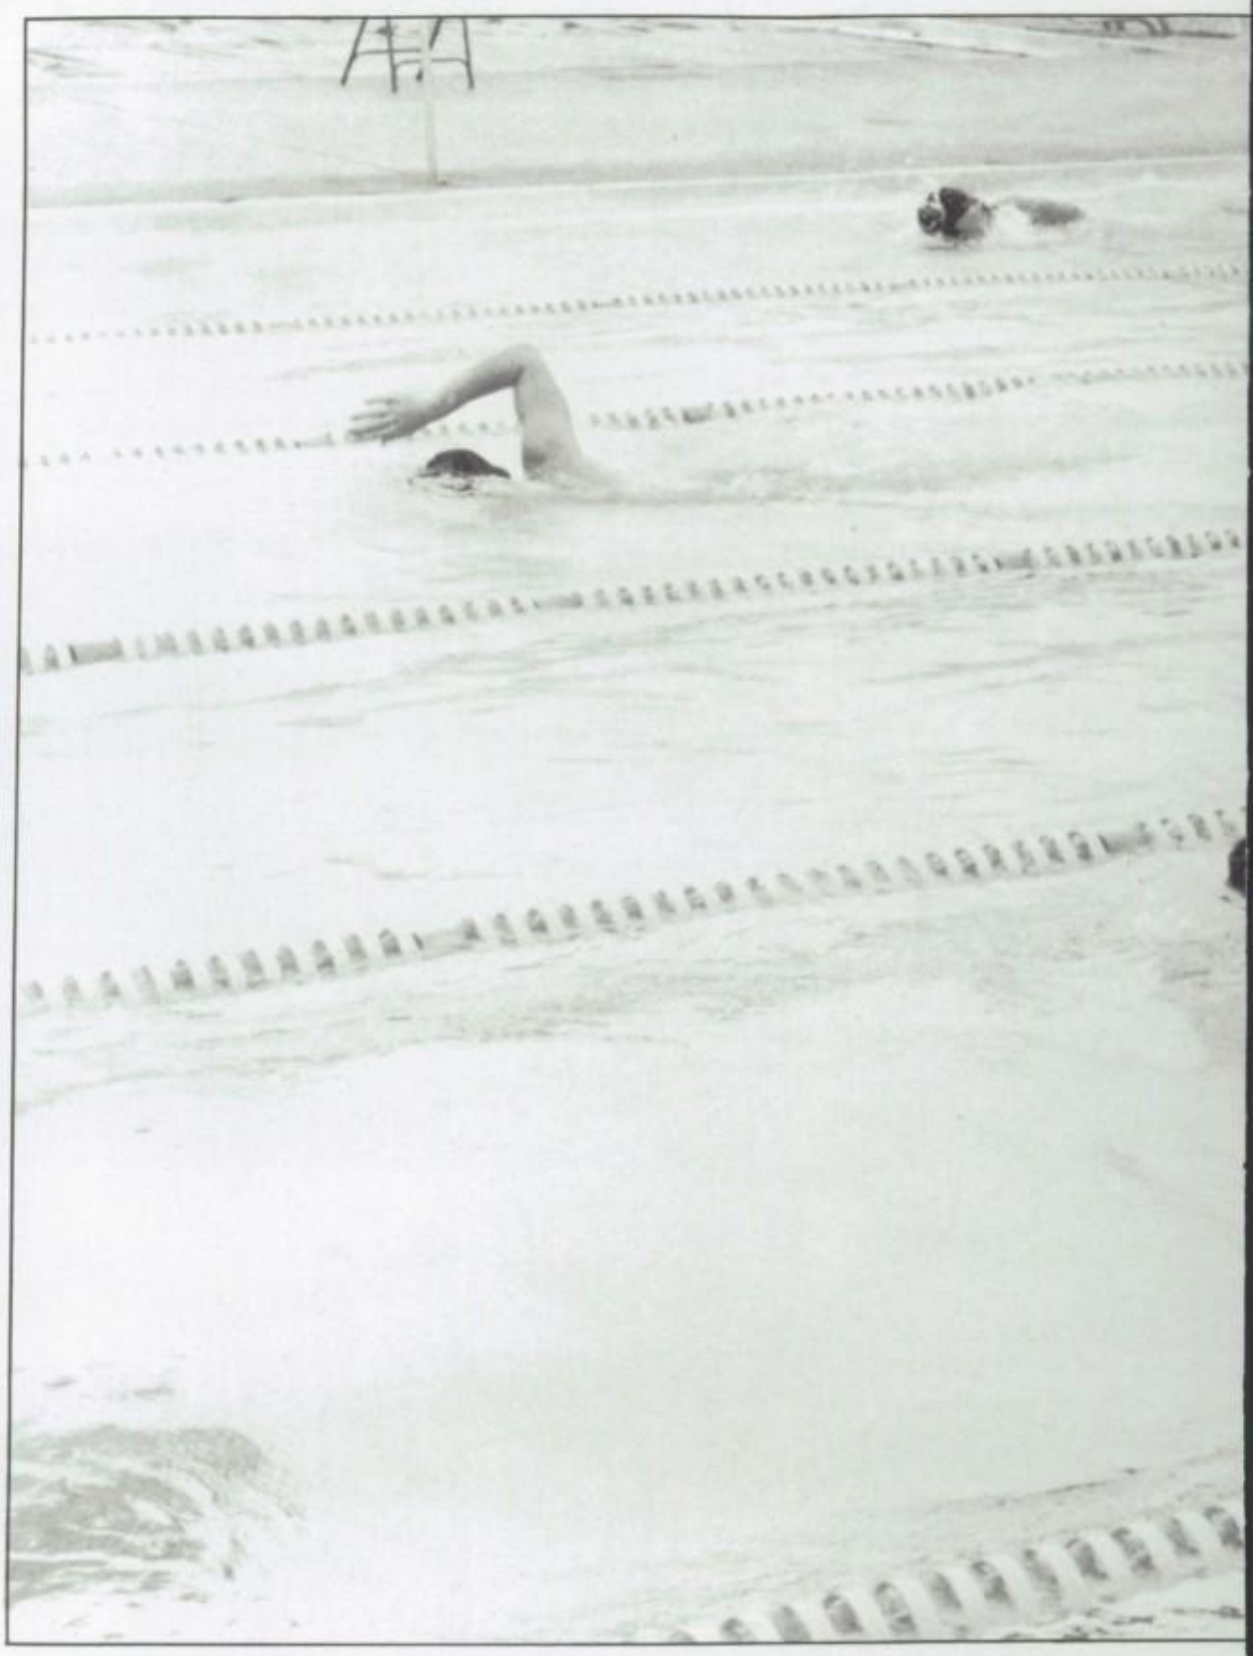
J.V.'s Strokin' to the Top

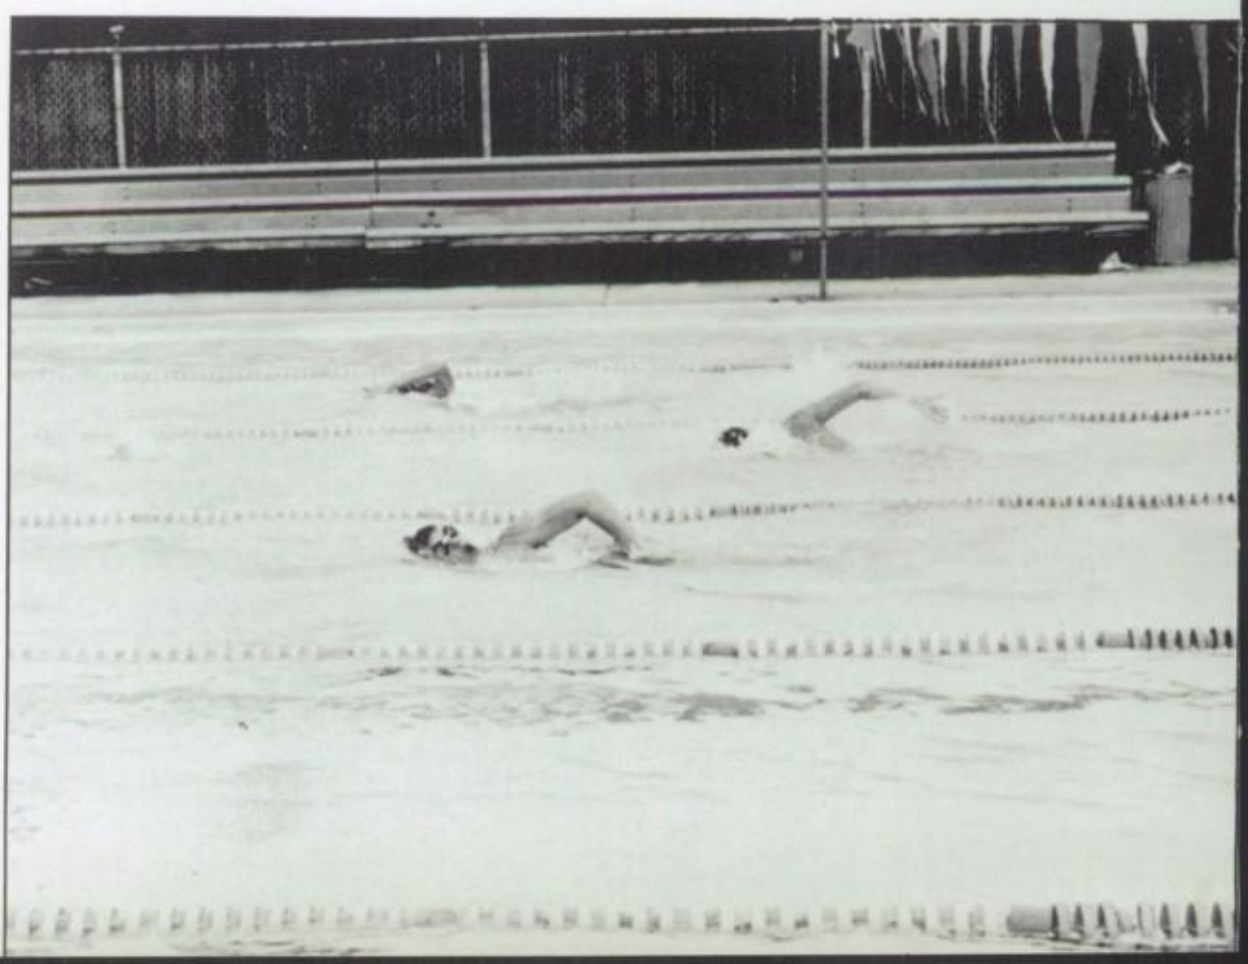
Though the Junior Varsity Boys Swim Team was small this year, they got off to an average start. But they were determined to be better than average with the motivation of Colette Kamian (coach). The first meet of the season wasn't too encouraging, but the following one proved to be successful, with the score being 114 to 112. This year the team was lead by all freshmen: Brian Dawson, Mike Slezak, and Trevor Hite.

Now the most crucial section of the schedule has passed. The last five meet were SCCAL meets against Watsonville, Santa Cruz, Harbor, Aptos, and Gilroy. During the last meets the team were pumped up, for all of these schools were rivals with Soquel.



Steve Thompson looks suprised as we catch him paddling away. Mike Slezak gives a little push, as he falls back to second.





Trevor Hite relaxes for a minute, as he hits the middle of the pool.

Soquel Swimmin' Women Take Charge

For the Girls' Varsity Swim Team, this year was different right from the start. Since there were a lot of year-round club swimmers on the team, they knew they had a chance to win league . . . and it would be the last chance for many of them.

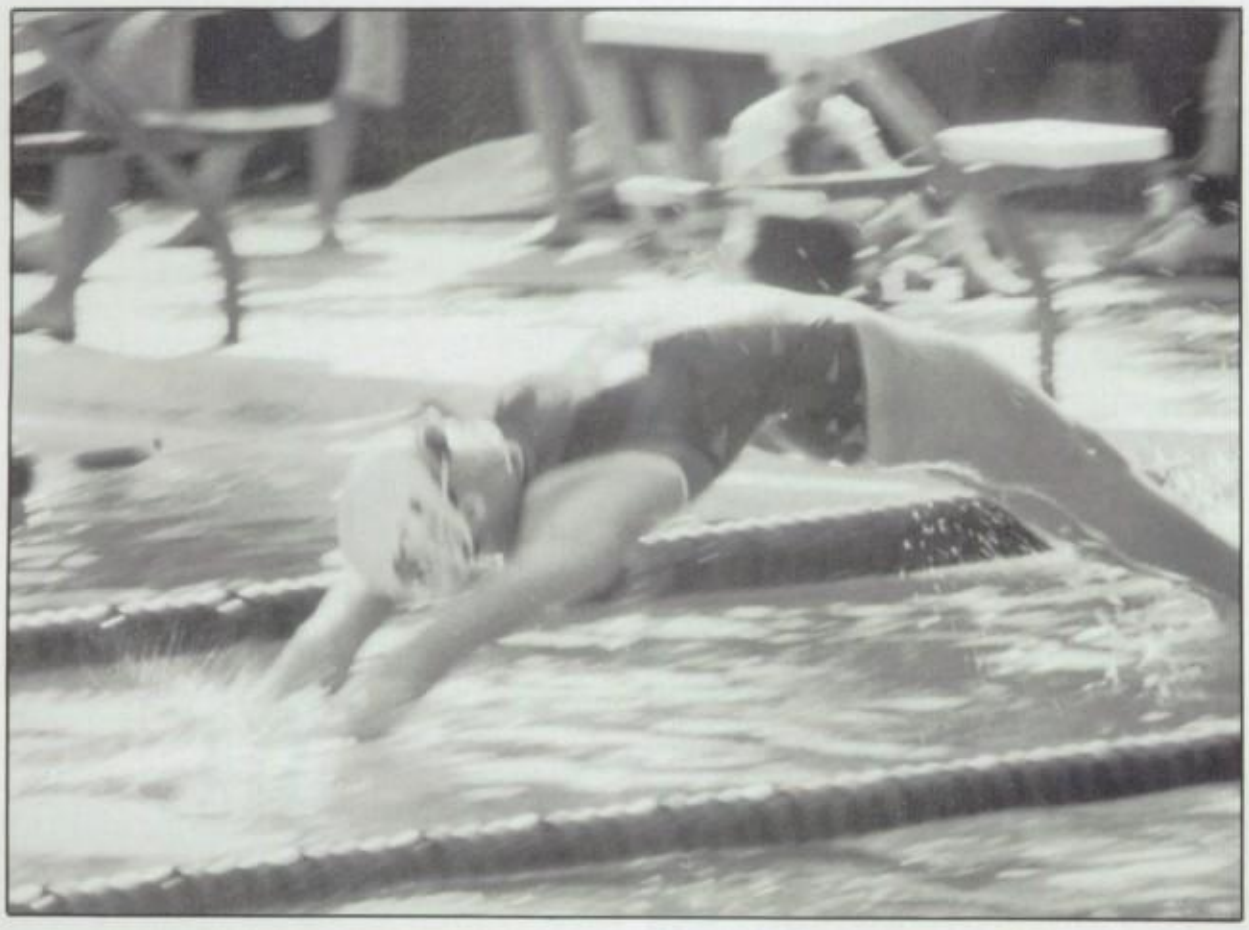
Practice started the first day of school and the girls were raring to go. They had practice everyday afterschool and also three mornings a week. If they were going to win, they had to work hard to get it.

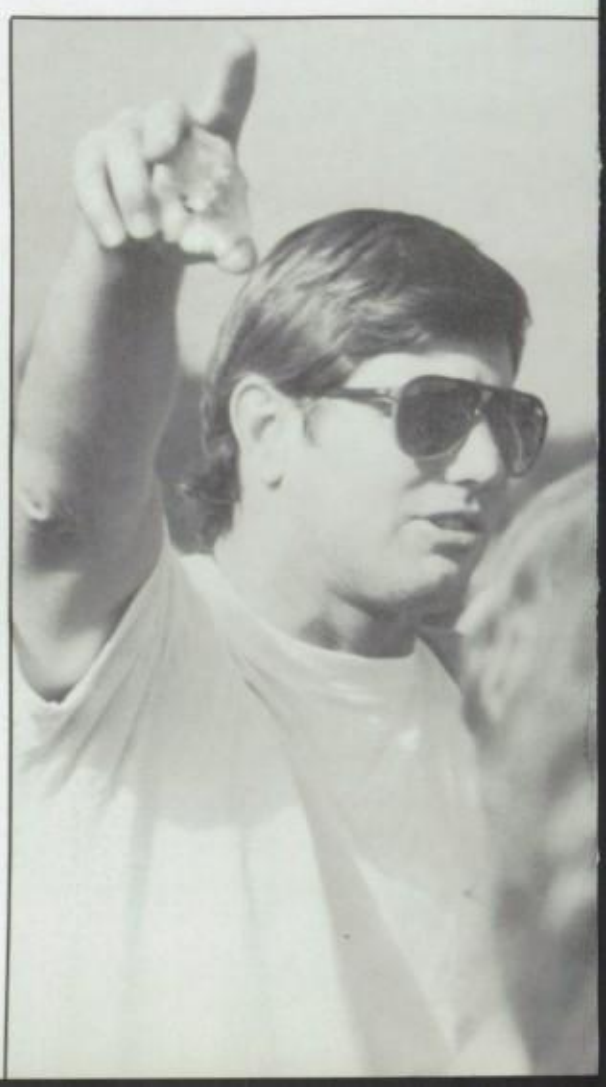
Well, the thousands and thousands of yards they swam each week paid off. From their first victory over Live Oak to their biggest victory at the league meet, the varsity girls dominated the league with an undefeated title.

"Great season! How can you do better than the best. This is the best ever done by any Soquel swim team," said coach Don Laster.

Not only was this year special for the girls, but it was also important for the school. During the twenty-five years that Soquel has been open, the varsity swim team has never obtained a league title, until now. If they had not gotten it this year, they might not have been able to for a while, because a majority of the girls are seniors. Most of these girls have also swam on the team all four years. They are Michele Dixon, Rachel Sweet, Jennifer Trahan, Angie Broce, and Christine Owens. To these girls, winning league was very important because it was their last chance.

Overall, this was the best season that the team has ever had. Now that they've let everyone know that they are the best, they will be the team to be watching out for next year.





Michelle Dixon (above) flys off the block in the 100 yard backstroke, the event that she placed first in at CCS. Coach Laster (right) prepares the girls for a meet with a pep talk.

"It's about time we won! We've had the potential, but we never had the opportunity until now."

J.V. GIRLS SWIM TEAM DOMINATES LEAGUE

Well what else can you say other than the J.V. team was definately hot this year. Not only did they demolish Live Oak, the former league champs, but they also won every one of their dual meets. They broke league records in the 200 free relay, the 200 i.m. relay, and others. Soquel not only beat all their rivals in the pool, they were also about the most spirited team around.

The team was the best that Soquel has had in a long time and will definately be the TEAM TO BEAT next year. The whole team was great, but there were a few people who really stood out. Ann Heitmeyer, Michele Murphy, Jennifer Dunton, Nell Marshall, and Susie Shultz were among the many outstanding swimmers.

At the beginning of the season, there were so many girls trying out for the team that they had to make cuts for the first time in a few years. "Since there was such a big turn out this year I had a strong feeling we could win league, but I never thought we would be undefeated. We really blew everyone away!" Coach Colette commented.

Next year, they will be ready for the tough competition and hopefully keeps their title as league champions for some time to come.

"This was a really exciting year! We worked really hard and it showed. I hope I can make the varsity team next year."

This year's Girls' Diving Team combined with the swimming team, did exceptionally well. They took first place in the S.C.C.A.L. Under the coaching of Phil Green, the only boy diver, Tim Childers, also did well.

Acade

TERI SCHWEITZER:

"What I like about the school this year is that the students are as wild and creative as usual and feel a pressing urge to express their unique personalities. At the same time, it's once again becoming "cool" to be intelligent. I like that. It's good to combine a love for living with a love for learning."

MARK MCCONNELL:

"The biggest improvement this year has been the stadium and all weather track. Our booster club has done a great job supporting Soquel athletics and building the stadium. I would like to see more support at the direct level for Soquel High. For example, I think our grounds keepers should receive more assistance than they sometimes seem to get."

BONNIE HILBERT:

"This is my second year at Soquel High, and it has been really great working here. The best thing about Soquel is the people, students, faculty, and administration. People have been very helpful, especially when it concerned a yearbook deadline. It's really nice to look forward to going to work; not everyone is that lucky."

TOBY ALEXANDER:

"The people, students, and staff, are what makes Soquel so great. The number of capable creative, caring individuals around Soquel is incredible. It's exciting to come to work. One never knows what will occur out of the ordinary, and even if the day goes as planned, there is always something different happening."

mics

Being the twenty-fifth year of Soquel High the academic program has grown and changed rapidly. There have been many additions to Soquel since 1962. Besides the basic reading, writing, and arithmatic classes some of the additions consist of: electronics, computers, audio visual, and home economics.

This years academic department at Soquel High has made many personnel changes. It has placed extreme emphasis on career and college bound students. It prepares students for higher education and the challenges of todays working world.

Career opportunities are numerous with new fields opening up every day. The graduating class has to deal with the pro's and con's of their times. With the education and the academics program the students of Soquel are ready for the world.

Soquel has truly flourished since 1962. This year we are happy to celebrate our 25th graduating class of Soquel and we feel success will come to these graduates as it has to many who have passed before them.

LENDING A HELPING HAND

STAFF TAKES CONTROL

Soquel High School just doesn't run itself. There are counselors and administrative staff members who are responsible for making this school successful. They not only run Soquel effectively, but they also listen to students and consider their input. An example of students and administration working gether last year is the way Dr. Krovetz and staff members listened to the students ho opposed the computer scheduling and acted on it. Because of this cooperation, e have been able to have arena scheduling this year.

The counselors have once again succeeded in helping out the student body with emester scheduling, helping seniors with college applications, and aiding students ith personal problems. Also they are concerned with each student's grades and oals for the future.

There are a lot more jobs to fill here at Soquel High than you might think. Secretarial and attendance are two important jobs. Without these people, Soquel wouldn't exist. WES BEACH

Wes Beach has been teaching Exploring Advanced Education at Soquel High for the last six years. This class enablesstudents to attend college while still at Soquel, and it shows you the different routes you can take towards graduating from high school. Wes had helped many student who don't enjoy high school find ways so that they can graduate without staying the whole four years. In many ways he has helped students start towards success in the future. At the beginning of the semester, Wes returned to school himself so that he could become a counselor here at Soquel. The yearbook class wants to wish Wes good luck, and we're excited to see you in the future as a counselor here at Soquel.

THE LANCER TELLS IT LIKE IT IS

Doing layouts, planning interviews, writing stories, and hurrying to meet deadlines, doesn't sound like a fun job and certainly not an easy one, but the Lancer does it with style. The staff has been working hard all year to inform students of the current activities and campus news. Each publication is filled with exclusive interviews, informative book and movie reviews and interesting stories. The success of the newspaper results from the hard work of Karston Wade (Editor-in-chief), and Juliet Fisher (Assistant Editor), along with the rest of the staff under the supervision of Mrs. Petrock.

TAKING CREDIT WHERE CREDIT'S DUE

Soquel High is celebrating their 25th anniversary this year. Under the leadership of Bonnie Hilbert and editor David Verduzco, the staff feels that we have highlighted those twenty-five years in this edition of the Citadel. Some of us received training in Yearbook West Camp at UCSC. Our staff was extremely active and worked together to meet our deadlines. The pressures of those major deadlines weighed heavily on the editors and the staff members.

This year's yearbook holds many new, exciting features including extra pages, more color, and all students names printed in gold on the cover.

Putting together a yearbook is complicated and takes many long hours of tedious work and a lot of team effort. But when the first copy of the book arrived, we knew it was all worthwhile.

Below right, Jonnell Yantis and Tricia Martorella check out a new arrival of pictures. New to the staff, they did a great job.

At right, Randy Boysen, the Ads editor, calls to confirm an order, "Now, that's two large Pepperoni pizzas, right?"

T.V. Productions

What does go on in the T.V. Productions class? It seems to be, as with everything else, a step-by-step learning process. They entered the class knowing nothing or very little about producing films, but by the end of the semester they knew how to make their own movie. The first step was to learn how to use the camera equipment. Then they learned how to film still shots. Next, sound was added to their film. With this film, they then learned how to use the editing machine to get rid of the footage that they didn't want. Voila, The final product!

Jeremy Montes, Jared Patching, Jim Gagnon, and Ernie Chairez at left, check their work with the editing machine. Kory Keadle, below, gets ready to do some "still shots".

Mrs. Petrock, left, shows some of her students how to use the equipment. Shannon Belle, above, takes time out from surfing to learn how to operate the camera.

Getting A Charge Out Of Science

The Horticulture classes have proven to be the best in the county. At the Santa Cruz Conty Fair the Horticulture had two feature booths- one took a first prize and the other took a second place. The first prize winner was a landscape and second prize was a booth explaining how to correctly use fertilizer.

Electronics is another top course. Students enjoy the classes and feel that they are beneficial to their needs.

Students can take pride in their work and education in both of these areas.

Precision is of the essence in art. Hard work is accomplished.

If designing great fashion is your taste, then you will love the Soquel High sewing department. Great teaching as well as good equipment will result in fabulous designs.

COOKING

Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Wilson had great classes in cooking. They were very knowledgeable and prepared students for life. The lessons learned will be an asset for the future.

Choral Department Gets Remodeled

From the growing popularity of the choral department, they have had to do some spring cleaning. This year, they remodeled their curriculum to offer a variety of choirs with a variety of talent. For the girls who like to sing and want to learn some musical skills at the same time, the Women's Choir was created just for them. Also, they were able to recruit enough brave guys to introduce the Men's Choir. Last year's Mixed Choir became the Concert Choir this year, but the prerequisite became a little tougher. In order to be in it you had to try out, but this didn't stop many of our amateur singers, Last, but definitely not least, is the Chamber Choir, which had only a few extremely talented members. This advance jazz choir performed on the steps of the White House on their trip back east with the Jazz Band. Soquel has always been reknowned for its excellent choirs and musical talent, and this year had been no exception.

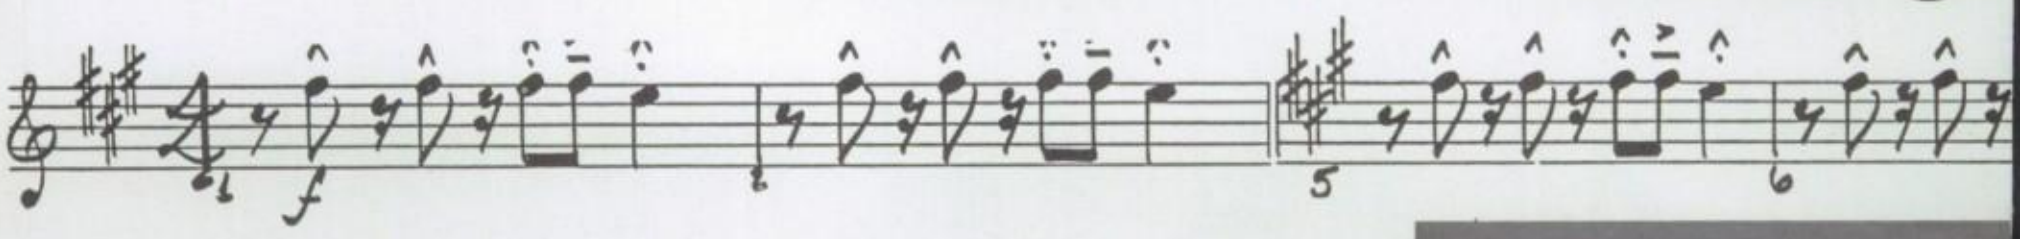
Music . . . Getting



The Soquel Music Department has always been known for its excessive talent. During the course of the year, the marching band participated in the Fiesta Day Parade, the Soquel-O-Rama, and many other competitions. The Orchestra went to the Instrumental Festival and played Christmas carols for various community organizations, such as the Ramblers. The Santa Cruz Jazz Festival and the C.C.S. Jazz Festival are just a few of the events the Jazz Band had performed in this year. But the main event for the Jazz Band was their trip to the East Coast. They travelled to Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and Washington D.C. They performed in various competitions and festivals, one of which they performed on the steps of the Capitol along with the Chamber Jazz Choir. The groups worked hard all year, with the help from the rest of the department, organizing fundraisers to help pay for the costly trip. The enthusiastic spirit that the trip produced, started a new meaning to school spirit to the music department. For this year, they were charged up with a new energy, one which they spread throughout the school.

Industrial Arts

Industrial arts offers great experience for later professions. These rewarding classes offer many opportunities for students to learn from.

Woodshop, metal crafts, drafting, and auto shop are some of the types of classes offered by the Industrial Arts department.

Woodshop consists of beginning and advanced woodshop and woodshop management. Metal crafts consists of metal crafts I and II, advanced metal crafts and metal shop management. Drafting I and II, advanced drafting, vocation auto technology, advanced vocational technology (ROP), mill/cabinet/carpentry (ROP), and mechanical drawing sum up the Industrial department's courses.

This year was very productive and students learned many valuable skills, thanks to Mr. Bassano, Mr. Bruce, Mr. Fishburn, and Mr. Sevrin.

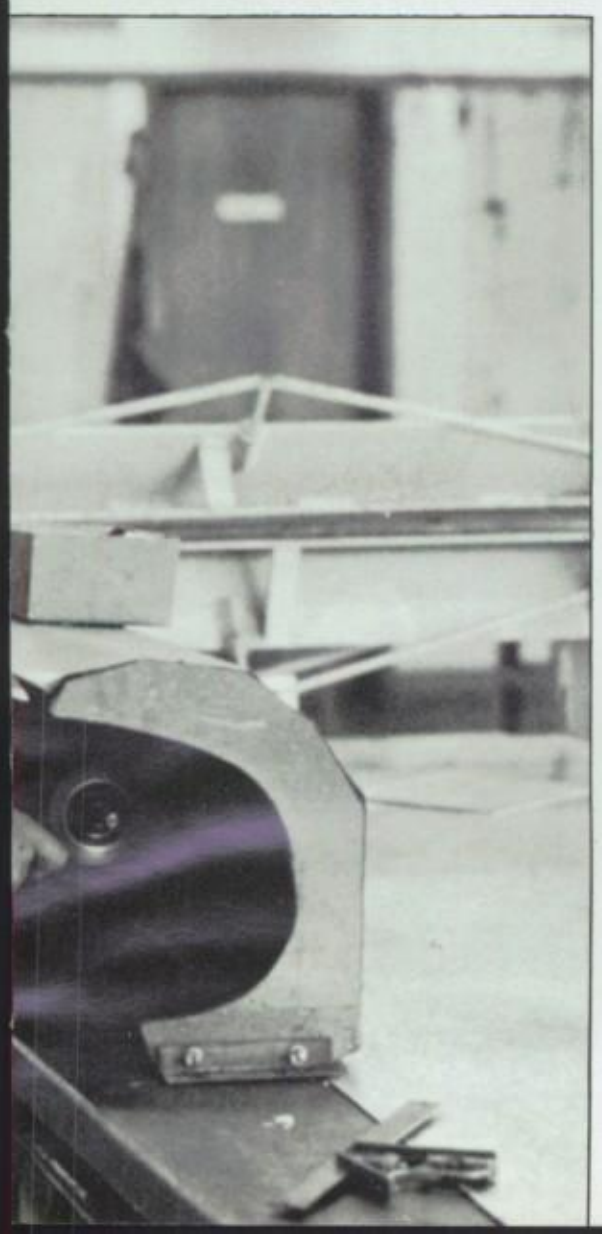
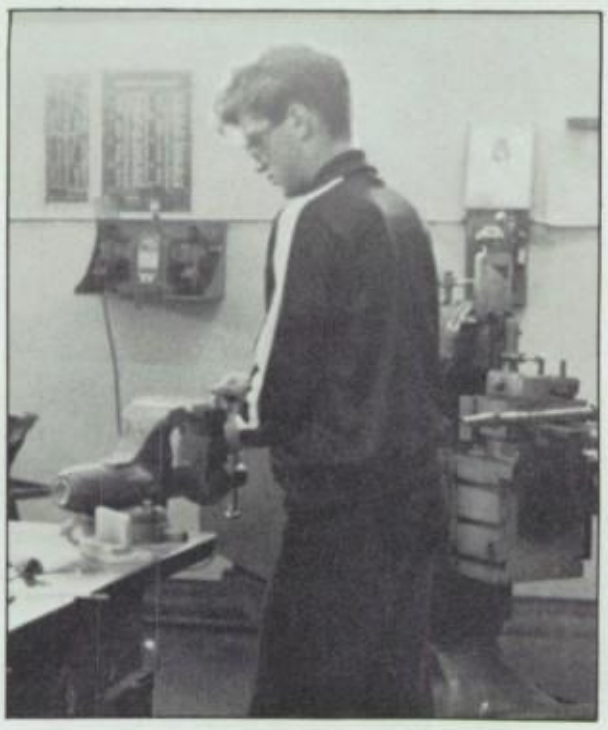
Ben Wagner sands his project on the wire wheel.

Darren Pharris and Dave Scott do machine work on the horizontal mill.

Mr. Bassano, gives instructions on how to become a master welder.





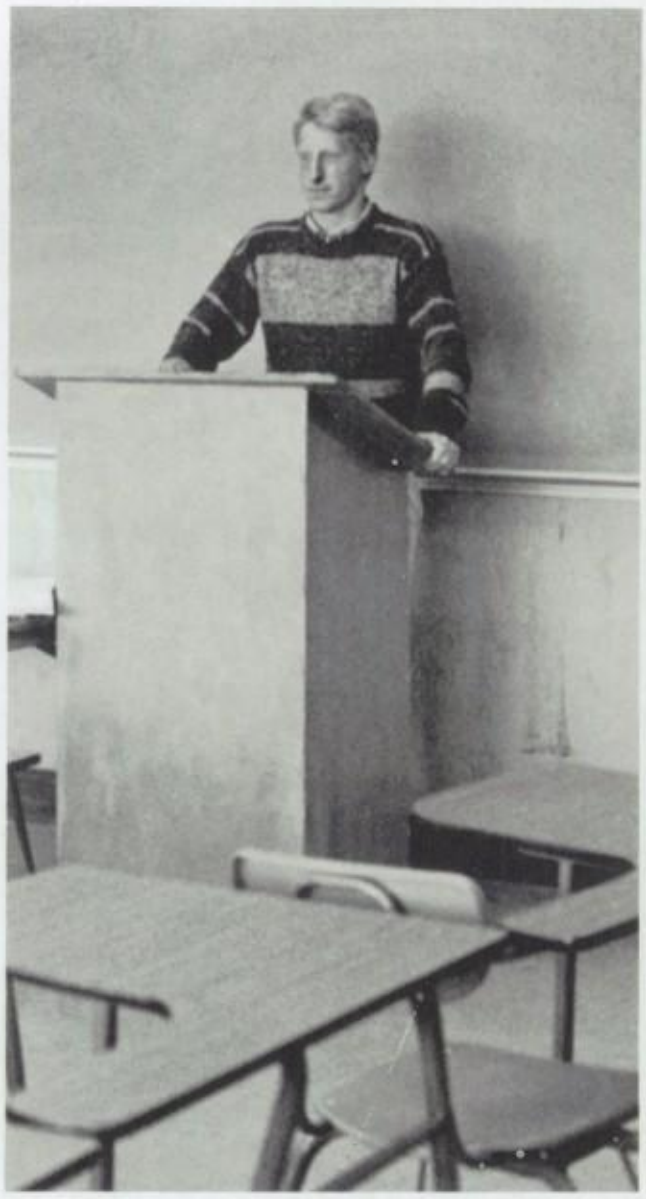
Metal shop teacher, Mr. Bassano, demonstrates how to weld.

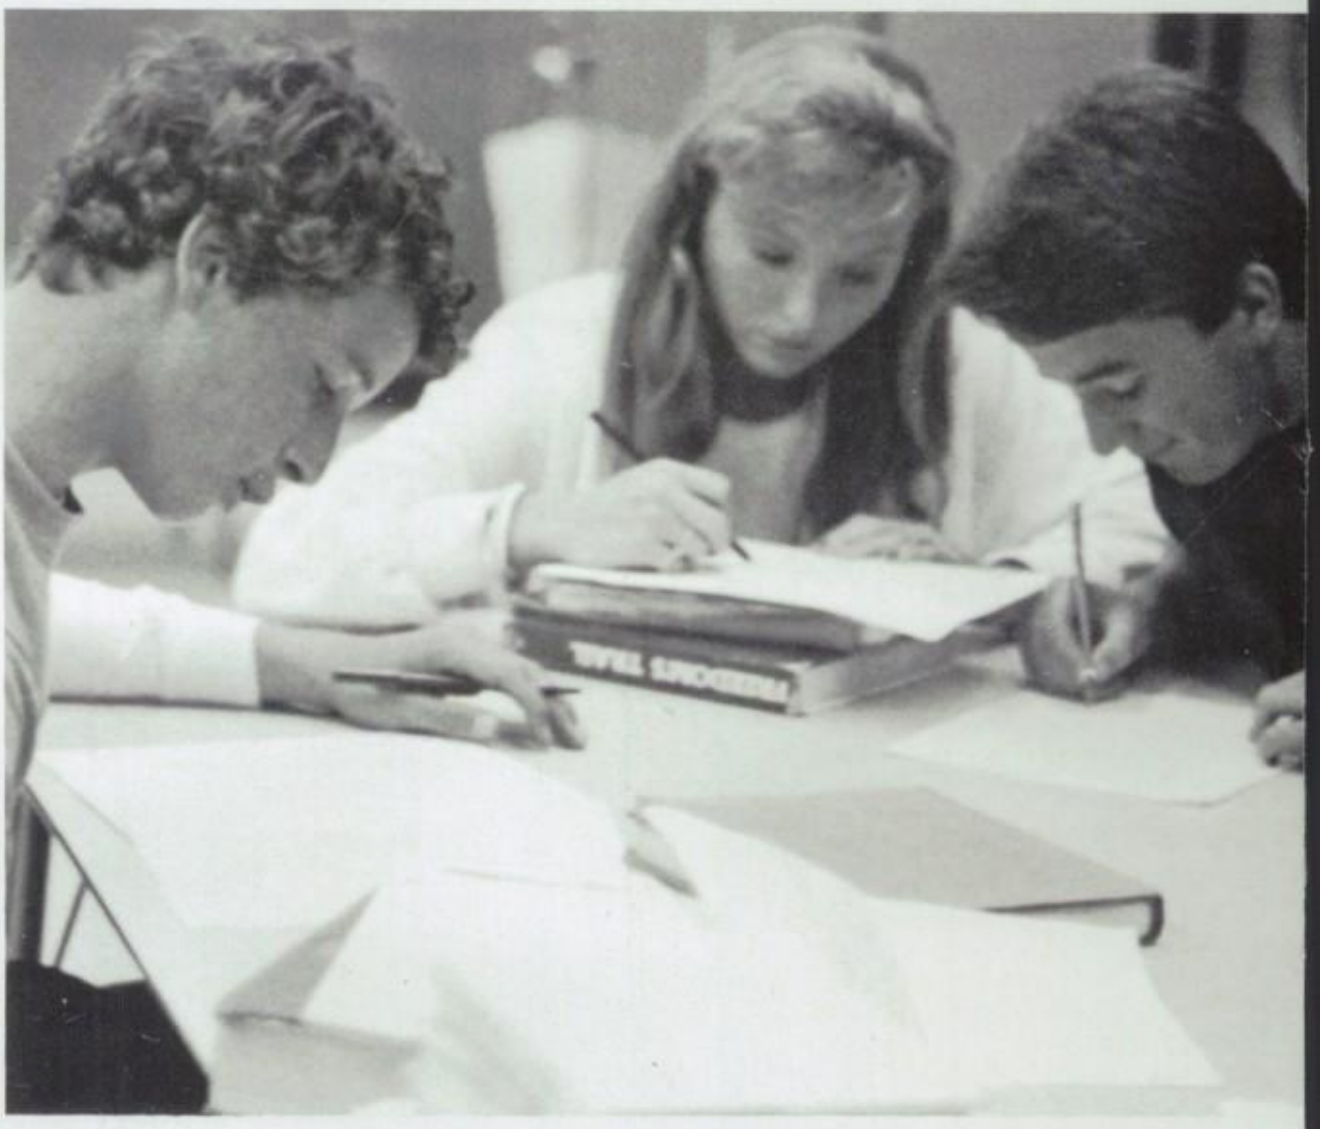
Ashley Adgar builds a wood working device.

English Spoken Here

A full four years of English courses are required to graduate. During those years students may choose from among such classes as Basic English, Intensive English, Creative Writing, literature, speech, and Competitive Forensics. These courses provide a sound foundation for both general and college prep students.

Competitive Forensics, directed by Larry Hattis, provides an opportunity for students to compete for money and scholarships provided by local organizations.





Above right, John Butterworth struggles for the last word to finish his work. Above left, Justin Coplea practices his speech, hopefully to win a trophy simular to those above him. Above, India Valeasquez is too into her book to notice her picture being taken on a "reading Friday". Right, Ron Dillman looks confused as he rereads the question.

Business As Usual

The Business Department is one we are very proud of. It is a department that is spearheaded by goal oriented students who are trying to prepare for life in business or get skills that will be necessary to succeed in college.

According to the students, typing is the most valuable class. Accounting, record keeping and computers are also considered to be very important. The Business Department offers these classes for students who want to learn more about business oriented activities. Keep up the good word Business Department.

Above: Because the computer lab is open at the convenience of the students, most take advantage of the situation and type essays or other assignments on the computers.

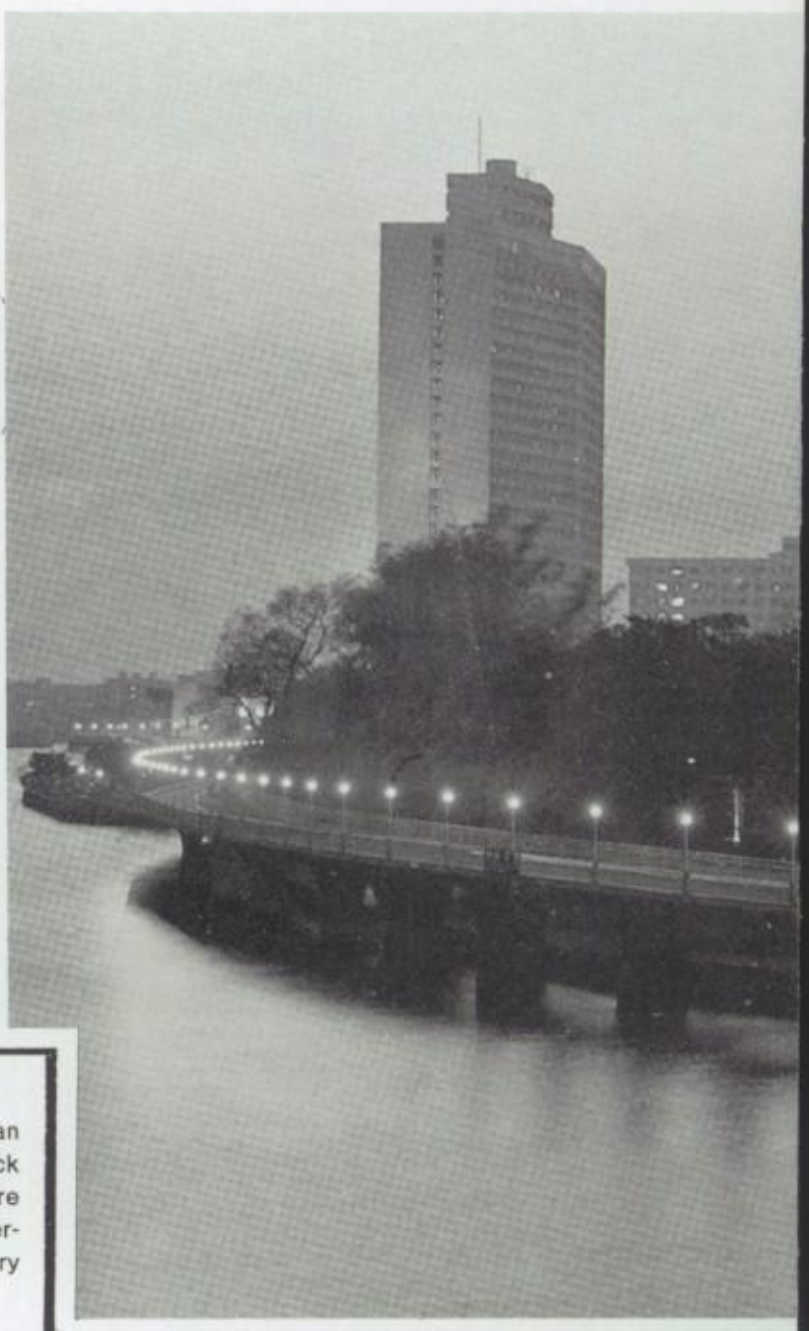
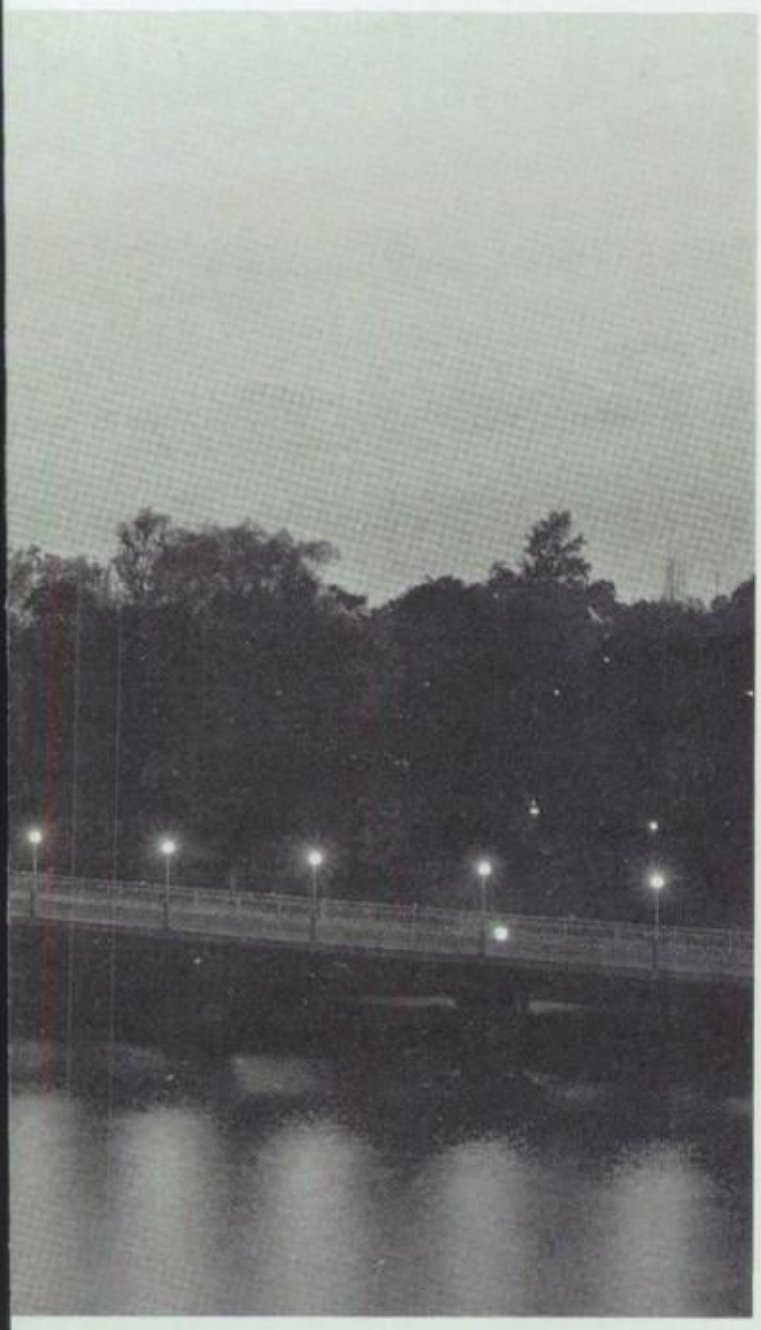
EURASIAN ~~experiences~~



Tell us about your trip —

Yvonne Mac Kenzie and Robin Straub adventured to many Eurasian countries last summer, such as China and Russia. They brought back ideas and experiences to share with their classes. The cities were captivating and the customs enlighting. They had a chance to experience the customs and culture of China and Russia, which are a far cry from our own.



An Exchange of Views

Anders Jenson is from Denmark. He is sixteen years old. Anders was only going to stay in California for one month, but he decided to stay longer because he liked it so much. What Anders misses the most is his home, Danish beer, and his family. When asked what souveniors he wanted to bring home with him, he said his music tapes, mostly heavy metal and Pink Floyd. Anders said that he would like to visit California again.

Matthias Norweg is an exchange student from Germany. He traveled straight to California from Germany. What Matthias misses the most from home is his friends. What Matthias is going to bring back with him to Germany is an American flag, and the license plate from his car. Matthias said that he liked California and he would come back again.

Louise Greiner, a foreign exchange student from Denmark, came to California and lives with a couple she already knew. Since Louise has been at California, she has traveled to Oregon, Washington, Canada, Mexico, Las Vegas and San Francisco. What Louisa misses the most back home is a special kind of rye bread. Louise wants to bring back "Pop Rocks" and a couple cans of "Jolt" cola with her to Denmark. Louise said "California is a neat place" and she would come again.

From Holland, Arjan Taal came straight to California. He has visited every country in Europe. What Arjan misses the most is wind surfing and his friends. Arjan is going to bring back with him an A's baseball cap, a T-shirt from Soquel High, and a surfboard for souveniors. Arjan's last remark was "I would come to California again."

Tricia and Jonnell interview foreign exchange students as they talk about their trip to America.

A Friend and Teacher We'll Miss

Ron Denton was a father, husband, teacher, and a friend to many: roles that Ron communicated in Spanish, Italian, Portueguese, and Greek.

Ron Denton loved the work and played with it as only he could do. We miss his wry humor in the halls, the sounds of "Faster, Faster!" and "What's up, Tiger?"; bantering with the students, the stories he always had ready to tell one and all.

Ron Denton gave a quarter century of his life to Soquel High. We have lost a uniquely gifted linquist whom we will not forget.

"You told me you wanted to be my friend
but every time I try to tell you

you interrupt and tell me what you think

I am looking for a friend

AN OUNCE OF FATHER POUND

"Yea High School!!"

Congrats to all of the '87 graduates! I hope that your days as Senior at SHS are great days and great memories! May they be with each of you all your life! Ask your mom or dad if they remember their Senior year, and all the "folderol" that does surround these days! They remember them, am sure! And fondly!!

May the Lord God bless these days with His peace. May your own memories of SHS be a source of smiles for you all of your life!!

All High School days are important times in your life. They are important times of formation and growth. Friends you have now can be friends for life! I pray these days at Soquel High be very happy and rewarding for all of you!

His Peace!

"SOQUEL TAKES CREDIT!" This year's Citadel staff had the difficult task of producing a yearbook that would live up to the standards of those expected for a silver anniversary edition. The cover design was the result of a team effort by the returning staff of 1986 with the actual artwork done by Design Express. This year's theme, "Soquel Takes Credit", was also the product of returning staff members and was carried out through photographs, copy, and captions.

Our outstanding publisher's representative, Mrs. Tenny Garner from the Herff-Jones Publishing Company, worked many hours with our staff. She was always there in times of need.

A special thanks goes out to Ms. Mary Haskin from Western School Portraits. She helped shoot our senior section and many of our school's extra curricular activities.

I would like to offer a special, well earned thank you to our 1986-1987 yearbook advisor, Mrs. Bonnie Hilbert. I've never met a more hardworking and extremely caring person. She demanded a lot out of our staff, yet she was the most loving, understanding teacher on campus. She was our mother away from home. Thanks for all the fun times, Mrs. Hilbert!

At the beginning of every year the staff sets certain goals. Being on the staff for two years now, I realize that not all our goals can be accomplished, but I think we did an exceptional job this year. We had more color and more total pages. Everyone's name was on their yearbook in gold type. To produce a good yearbook requires a solid community effort and that's exactly what we got this year. I thank all the staff members for their hard work and effort.

TWENTYFIVE

YEARS OF CREDABILITY

Although each year the faces, the fads, and the trends change, some things still remain the same. For the last twenty-five years, Soquel has consistantly been a leader in academics and sports. There are a few teachers who have stuck with it the last twenty-five years to have seen thousands of students go by. If one was to visit in the last twenty-five years, they would find Mr. Smith giving a long-period lecture about the American system; Mr. Harlamoff experimenting with quantum theory; and Dewey Tompkins yelling at the top of his lungs to the freshmen P.E. class, "Another 50 laps! And when you're done with that, 200 more push-ups!" Still they continue teaching with as much enthusiasm as they did twenty-five years ago. The Soquel High class of 1987 and many to follow will surely make their mark in the world. Good luck!

Michelle Bettencourt and Tammy Hadreas stop for a quick picture with Ricky Ellison. The Niners stomped the Knights at a benefit basketball game.

Dear Mom and Dad,
I hope you're having a great summer. I'm having a blast at camp. We've been swimming a lot and I've been practicing my archery skills. I'm getting pretty good at it! I've also been making some new friends and we've been having a lot of fun together. I can't wait to tell you all about it when I get home. I hope you're enjoying the summer too!

Love,
Aimee
